VAN DYKE STEPS INTO BREACH

American Pastor Suggests Plans to Settle the Free Church Dispute.

FAVORABLY HEARD

He Proposes Arbitration and Also an Act Giving Power to Amend Doctrinal Standards.

BOTH SIDES COULD ACCEPT

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The thanks of Great Britain is due to an American for having pointed the way to what at this time appears to be a solution of the entanglement in church affairs in Scotland. Both in England and Scotland the plans suggested by the Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke have met with favor and may bring about a solution of the entire difficulty.

By the decision of the lords, the Free church, a small denomination in the north of Scotland, secured title to millions of dollars' worth of property of the United Free church throughout Great Britain, consisting of theological schools, churches and other property. The whole dispute hinges on a matter of doctrine, the United church taking advanced ground, which the Free church declared was a violation of the tenets on which the church rested.

Dr. Van Dyke is one of the leading Presbyterians of the United States and has been a professor of literature at Yale and now at Princeton. He was pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church in New York and is a noted author. He is now in Ireland. Dr. Van Dyke says in part:

Facts of the Dispute.

"Three points are evident to the wayfaring man:

"1. The minority's Free church having conducted a successful lawsuit for title to certain property, must respect and observe the grounds on which judgment was rendered in their favor. They cannot give the property away in answer to any appeal, however pathetic.

"2. The United Free church, having taken certain action, essentially religious in character, and claiming to have been sincerely led by conscience, cannot consistently rescind that action for pecuniary reasons.

"3. The practical result of this state of affairs is that the property of the old Free church, adjudged by the lords to the minority, is placed in such a position that it cannot possibly be applied to the purposes for which it was given, unless some way out of the present situation is found.

Plans for a Settlement.

Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke.

"1. A council of, say, 10 men of acknowledged wisdom, fairness and experience could be named, whose advice the two churches should agree to follow in regard to the proper and just way of carrying out the main purpose of the donors of the property in question, many of whom are still living. This would involve, no doubt, some concessions on both sides. But it would be far less costly to the cause of religion, far less dangerous to the welfare of the country, than the attempt either to enforce the decision by legal process or to resist it by prolonged conflict.

"2. A united appeal could be made, with the hearty support of the whole country behind it, for an act of parliament to sanction and confirm this solution of the property as the nearest possible way of executing the trust, and also to guarantee for the future the spiritual independence of all the churches of Scotland by granting them the explicit right to make constitutional provision for the amendment of their subordinate doctrinal standards in accordance with the holy scriptures.

"Such a solution could be accepted with honor by both of the churches which are most closely involved in the present entanglement."

CARNEGIE ABOUT TO BUY THE ISLAND OF ORANSAY

It Is Believed He Will Lay Out a Hunting Preserve on a Magnificent Scale.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Sept. 14.—I learn from one of the largest real estate dealers of Scotland, who is visiting London, that Andrew Carnegie is about to buy the island of Oransay, on the west coast of Scotland. It was recently stated that Lord Strathcona was to be the purchaser. This is now denied.

There are several thousand acres in the island of Oransay, and the island has been in the McNeill family for more than two centuries. There is fine fishing and shooting and a number of interesting monastery ruins on the island.

It is believed Mr. Carnegie will lay the island out on a magnificent scale as a hunting preserve.

SHE AGAIN WEDS A PITTSBURGHER

Divorced Wife of Charles S. Clarke Now Bride of Charles Donnelly, Jr.

WEDDED BY PRIEST

Sensational Report of Archbishop's Refusal to Perform Ceremony Denied.

WANTED MARRIAGE A SECRET

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.

Mrs. Charles Sumner Clarke, noted beauty, formerly Miss Alline Stocking of Atlanta, Ga., after having divorced Charles S. Clarke of Pittsburgh a few months ago, was married to Charles Donnelly, Jr., a wealthy young Pittsburgher, in St. Patrick's cathedral at 5 o'clock this afternoon by the Rev. Richard O. Hughes of the cathedral.

No dispensation, as is required from Rome when a divorced member of the Catholic church desires to marry again, was necessary for the marriage of Mrs. Clarke. When she presented the case to Archbishop Farley the matter was submitted to the ecclesiastical court of this archdiocese, and communication was held by it with the bishops of the Pittsburgh and Atlanta dioceses.

It developed through this investigation that Charles Sumner Clarke, the former husband, never was baptized and under the rule of the church Miss Stocking's contract with him was void, and that Mrs. Clarke was, in the eyes of the church, a woman who had never contracted a marriage. As she and Mr. Donnelly are Catholics, there was no impediment to their marriage within the church.

She Wanted It a Secret.

There was a sensational report in circulation that Archbishop Farley had refused to permit the ceremony, but this upon investigation proved unfounded, as the prelate had no ecclesiastical objections to the wedding when the facts of the case were presented.

Mrs. Clarke reached the church shortly before the hour set for the ceremony, attended by her sister, Miss Kathryn Stocking of Atlanta, attired in a becoming traveling gown. The bridegroom was not long coming with his best man, William Blakely, Esq., of Pittsburgh.

When Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly came from the church they were driven hurriedly down Fifth avenue, presumably to the Waldorf-Astoria, where Mr. Donnelly and his best man were registered. Mrs. Donnelly thought to keep the wedding a secret, but when she understood it would be made public, she acquiesced with the mere remark:

"It's disheartening that we cannot have our little secret."

As Miss Alline Stocking of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Donnelly was married to Charles Sumner Clarke on January 26, 1896. They had two children, boys, 5 and 7 years of age, who were awarded to Mrs. Donnelly's custody when she obtained a divorce on April 1 last. Mr. Clarke's mother had large holdings in steel corporations in Pittsburgh, which she sold to the trust.

First Marriage a Failure.

As Miss Alline Stocking, Mrs. Clarke was one of the most beautiful women in southern society and her wedding to Mr. Clarke was a social event. The divorce which followed set all the south in a flutter. The marriage took place at Atlanta January 26, 1896, and for a year the couple lived in Pittsburgh. Clarke's income at the time was said to be $12,000 a year, and so far as any one knows it is no less at present. At one time he was president of the Brokers' Wire and Service Company.

Two boys were born to the Clarkes, but it was not very long before troubles came and finally they separated, Clarke paying his wife $125 a month. Later she sued for absolute divorce, and named Mrs. Eugenie Bashford-Tonkins. After a short hearing Justice Truax granted her application and allowed her alimony of $200 a month.

WILL HATCH SNAKES.

State Economic Zoologist Surface Is About to Rig Up an Incubator.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—State Economic Zoologist Surface is about to rig up an incubator for the hatching of snakes. He is now hatching blacksnake eggs sent him a few days ago by a boy in Allegheny City, and is about to "set" a number of eggs of the hog-nosed adder. The little adders are in a box covered with wire and are handled fearlessly by the state zoologist. From Shawnee, Monroe county, the doctor received a box of turtle eggs, which were found under a stone in a field.

A state forester in Huntingdon county has sent to the department a rattlesnake skin six and one-half feet long and seven feet wide. A Mercersburg man writes to Dr. Surface that he has located two dens of snakes, large rattlers, and can furnish any number of them. He was told to send them along and the department would pay the express charges. Further than this the state pays nothing.

FORMER PITTSBURGH BROKER ARRESTED FOR FORGERY

CINCINNATI, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Harry Malloy, alias Charles G. Harris, who claims to have conducted bucket shops for a number of years in Pittsburgh and Cleveland, was arrested here this afternoon on a charge of having forged checks on a firm at Zanesville, O., and passed them in numerous cities in Ohio, several of them in Cincinnati.

Pittsburgher Acquitted.

NEW CASTLE, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—William A. Williamson of Pittsburgh has been acquitted in criminal court here of the charge of embezzlement entered against him by George M. Guffey of Pittsburgh.

FAIRBANKS WILL SOUND KEYNOTE

Vice Presidential Candidate to Formally Open Campaign in Pennsylvania.

WILL SPEAK AT READING

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 14.

With the meeting of the convention of the State League of Republican clubs in Reading next Wednesday the campaign in this state will be formally opened. The keynote will be sounded by Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican vice presidential candidate, in an address which he will deliver to the delegates. The indications now are that Republicans from all sections of the state will be on hand to hear him speak.

In addition to Mr. Fairbanks, the Republican national committee has promised that Senator Foraker will attend. It is practically certain that Senator Boles Penrose, the state chairman, will also speak.

Despite the fact that the withdrawal of all opposition to the re-election of John R. Wiggins as president of the league has robbed the coming gathering of anticipated excitement, there has been no abatement in the enthusiasm. It is estimated that between 900 and 1,000 Republicans will go up from this city alone, and that the attendance will be the largest that has ever marked a convention of the league.

Chairman Penrose is still in New York, and is not expected to return until tomorrow evening. He went over in response to a call from the national committee. It is evident National Chairman Cortelyou proposes to keep in close touch with him throughout the campaign.

Next Tuesday the Republican state committee will meet at the headquarters on Locust street to fill vacancies on the electoral ticket, caused by the withdrawal of David C. Nimlet, Daniel Baugh and Alexander Van Rensselaer, all of this city. They have withdrawn because, being bank directors, they cannot, under the law, serve as presidential electors. Frank J. Graff of Armstrong county, who it was reported would also get off the ticket, has notified Senator Penrose that he will not withdraw, so that, as far as is now known, the committee will have only three places to fill.

There is some question as to the eligibility of George Westinghouse of Pittsburgh, and it may be that he will have to withdraw. Secretary Andrews of the state committee has not heard from Mr. Westinghouse in some weeks, but it will be known before the committee meets whether he is connected with any bank.

LOCAL STOCKS LISTED.

Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston and Westinghouse Issues on New York Exchange.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—The board of governors of the New York stock exchange held its first meeting today since the vacation recess and made the following listings of securities:

Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston Railway Company, $6,000,000 first mortgage 40-year guaranteed 4 per cent bonds of 1903.

Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, $2,397,400 additional assenting stock, with authority to add $72,150 more on notice of issue, making a total authorized of $20,996,350.

CONSUL AT CANTON, CHINA, DISMISSED BY ROOSEVELT

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—President Roosevelt today directed that Robert W. McWade, consul at Canton, China, be dismissed from the diplomatic service. Consul McWade was charged with using his position for extortion and with issuing false and fraudulent certificates to Chinese emigrants to America. McWade was appointed by President Roosevelt in 1902. He was from Philadelphia and had very good references.

DIVORCE GRANTED TO L. C. PHIPPS

Wife to Get the Income from $750,000 While She Remains Single.

EQUAL CUSTODY OF CHILDREN

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

DENVER, Sept. 14.—Lawrence C. Phipps was this afternoon granted a divorce from his wife, Genevieve Chandler Phipps, by a jury in the district court on grounds of desertion for more than one year.

The attorneys for Mrs. Phipps filed their answer, which was a general denial of all the allegations, but no defense was made by them at the trial. Mr. Phipps took the stand and after the formal questions and answers it was brought out that the complaint, which has been carefully suppressed since filed, contained only charges of desertion. The trial of the case occupied exactly 13 minutes and the jury rendered their verdict without leaving the box.

All matters relating to the children and money in the nature of alimony were settled by a written contract. Under this contract Mrs. Phipps reconveys to him the "Grandview" residence in Pittsburgh, also the Denver residence. The bonds in the United States Steel Corporation to the face value of $500,000 are to be assigned to Mr. Phipps. In return he transfers to a trust company $750,000 bonds of the United States Steel Corporation, to be held in trust for her during life. If she should marry, the decree provides that all but $250,000 of these bonds should revert to the four children of Mr. Phipps and at her death the balance also.

The custody of their two children is equally divided btween them as to time, being six months each, however, with the provision that the home of Mr. Phipps shall be their legal residence, from which they may be taken two months in the year by Mrs. Phipps, but not to be taken out of this country without the other parent's consent.

WOMAN PECKED BY HEN DIES OF THE LOCKJAW

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Mrs. Sarah H. Patten, wife of John Patten, a well-known farmer near here, died in agony this morning from lockjaw. Last week a vicious hen pecked her on the hand. A slight abrasion of the skin was made and the hand and arm began to swell. Lockjaw set in two days ago. Mrs. Patten was 60 years old.

TELLS STORY OF RETREAT

Among Kuropatkin's Killed Were Generals Ruktovsky and Fomin.

Abandoned His Commissary Department With Stores for Eight Days.

ONE REGIMENT CUT IN TWO

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 14.—Under date of September 11, Gen. Kuropatkin reports to the emperor as follows:

"On August 26 the Manchurian army occupied three groups of positions, the first at Pet-Tsu and An-Ping on the left flank; the second at Lian-Dian-Sian in the center, and the third at An-Shan-Shan on the right flank. The same day the Japanese assumed the offensive along the whole front. At Lian-Dian-Sian all their attacks were repulsed, and on the left we retained our principal position at An-Ping. After a desperate battle the Japanese, however, succeeded in securing the position at Pet-Tsu, thus threatening the line of retreat of the corps along the Tan river. Simultaneously a turning movement by considerable forces of Japanese was observed on the left flank of our position at An-Shan-Shan.

"Taking advantage of our positions at Lian-Dian-Sian and An-Ping, in order to gain time and inflict severe losses on the enemy, I withdrew all the army corps from advanced positions to Liao-Yang.

"In consequence of the mountainous nature of the country on our front, and the bad condition of the roads toward the south, the two days' march toward Liao-Yang was of the most difficult kind, and only the devotion of all the troops on the east front enabled it to be carried out in good order. Only after incredible difficulties was it found possible to drag all the guns and all our baggage through the passes. Some of the guns were carried through the mountains by infantry.

"Difficult as was the retreat through the passes, under pressure from the enemy, the march across the open country was still more arduous. The left and center columns succeeded in getting all their artillery and baggage to Liao-Yang. The march of the right column, which was obliged to cross westward to the railway, where the country had suffered most severely from rains, was especially difficult. Considerable forces of the enemy followed the rear guard, which maintained a stubborn resistance.

"The guns of the retiring batteries began to sink in the mud. Twenty-four horses were hitched to each piece, companies of infantry assisting with ropes. The horses and men, however, sunk so deep that it was necessary for the comrades of the latter to haul them out. Gen. Rutkovsky remained so long, covering the extrication of the guns, that his force lost heavily. The general himself and Col. Raben, commanding the Fourth regiment of East Siberian sharpshooters, were killed. Notwithstanding all efforts it was finally necessary to abandon the guns.

"On August 29 the army concentrated at Liao-Yang. One corps took a position on the right bank of the Tai-Tse river, while another held the left bank.

Fierce Bayonet Fighting.

"On August 30 and 31 the Japanese attacked our advance positions with great energy, but everywhere were repulsed with enormous losses. There was desperate fighting on our left flank and center, accompanied by a number of counter attacks, resulting in bayonet fighting, and I was compelled to reinforce the fighting line with the special reserves and the general reserves.

"During August 31 it could clearly be seen that a considerable force of Gen. Kuroki's army had crossed to the right bank of the Tai-Tse river. Owing to attacks on our left, on August 30 and 31, it was supposed that the main body of Kuroki's army had been told off to turn the left flank of our position and attack our line of communication. In consequence, I resolved to withdraw the advance troops to the main position, and concentrate a large force against Kuroki and attempt to hurl his army back upon

MARRIED MAN FATALLY SHOOTS GIRL AND KILLS HIMSELF

Washington County Farmer Commits Crime Because Former Sweetheart Refused to Elope With Him—Had Wife and Two Children.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 14.—Edward Tombaugh, aged 27, and married, a young farmer of good family, this afternoon fatally wounded Miss Edna Waterall, aged 21, formerly of this county, but now of Westbury, L. I., at Centerville, because she refused to elope with him. He then killed himself.

Miss Waterall was visiting the family of Anderson Jeffreys. Before her parents moved to Long Island, several years ago, Tombaugh was in love with her, but after her departure married a girl of good family and has two children. The girl, after the shooting, stated that since her visit Tombaugh had been trying to induce her to elope, but she had refused and discouraged his attentions, last night ordering him to leave her presence and never return. He tried to kill her, but she eluded him.

This afternoon Tombaugh bought a revolver and went to the Jeffreys residence, where he found Miss Waterall, Mrs. Jeffreys and Mrs. Henry Hanan sitting on the front porch. Tombaugh walked up to Miss Waterall and, grasping her by the arm, asked, "Now will you go with me?" Before the frightened girl had a chance to reply he drew a revolver and shot her through the right breast. As she reeled and turned her back to him he fired again into her back, this bullet also piercing her right lung in almost the same spot as the other. As Miss Waterall fell to the porch Tombaugh walked to the top of the short flight of steps and pressing the muzzle to his right temple shot himself. He dropped dead instantly. Mrs. Jeffreys fainted, while Mrs. Hanan secured aid.

Tombaugh's body was taken to his home near Fredericktown. He had been drinking heavily for a few days.

Miss Waterall is a beautiful blonde. Her physician says she cannot recover. Her parents have been notified.

STRIKE VOTE BEING TAKEN

Fort Wayne Railroad and Its Branches Concerned in the Situation.

TRAINMEN AFFECTED

Their Brotherhood's General Grievance Committee Is in Session in Pittsburgh.

WANT UNION RECOGNIZED

Members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, employed on the Fort Wayne system, are now taking a vote whether or not to strike. The vote from several divisions is already in, and will be counted on Monday. The general grievance committee of the brotherood was in session yesterday, at the Seventh Avenue hotel, with Val. Fitzpatrick, third vice grand master of the brotherhood.

For some months past the union has been conferring, or rather seeking to confer with General Manager G. L. Peck of the Fort Wayne system. The railroad company was asked to sign a schedule providing for an increase in wages, and containing a list of conditions under which the men were to work, and an agreement to recognize the union, the last being something the Pennsylvania railroad and the Pennsylvania Company, which operates the Fort Wayne, have steadily refused to do in the past.

Only the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen is concerned; the Switchmen's union and the Order of Railway Conductors have presented no grievances to the company and have not asked, officially at least, for an increase in wages. Some years ago, when the Switchmen's union struck on the railroads hereabouts, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen refused to support the strike and was accused by the Switchmen's union of working against the strikers. Switchmen threaten that if the trainmen strike now the members of the Switchmen's union will oppose them. About half the conductors on the Fort Wayne system belong to the trainmen, the other half belonging to the Order of Railway Conductors, while more switchmen belong to the Switchmen's union that to the trainmen's brotherhood.

The Divisions Under Consideration.

The following divisions are affected by the vote that is being taken: The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad; Erie & Pittsburgh, Cleveland & Pittsburgh, Erie & Ashtabula and Toledo, Walhonding & Ohio River railroads.

The general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen is composed of: C. B. Sowash, local 222, New Castle; C. M. Preble, 136, Fort Wayne, Ind.; J. L. Carey, 323, Freedom; M. C. Whiteleather, 178, Alliance; James Boylan, 478, Mansfield; J. Scott, 441, Crestline; George Whalen, 4, Chicago; J. M. Briggs, 685, Steubenville; A. J. Healy, 286, Wellsville; J. V. Cornwall, 260, Cleveland; C. S. Ralston, 381, Bellaire; C. O. Brown, 199, Erie; M. F. Haden, 21, Youngstown; W. M. Jones, 84, Ashtabula; B. M. Fraser, 471, Mahoning; H. T. Randall, Sharon; J. A. Peeps, 618, Toledo, and H. B. Koch, 136, Fort Wayne, Ind. This committee issued a circular to the Fort Wayne employes who are members.

The circular contains a recital of the efforts of the committee to secure recognition of the schedule of wages and conditions submitted by it. According to the circular, committees of employes of the Fort Wayne system, between February and May of this year, called on the division superintendents and submitted a schedule of wages and conditions. Some of the superintendents granted minor demands, but as there was no uniformity in their action the local committees referred the matter to the brotherhood general grievance committee of the system. On July 22 and 23 that committee called on General Superintendent Schoyer in Pittsburgh. He refused to grant the schedule and withdrew the grants made by the division superintendents.

What the Grievances Are.

The circular asserts that the general superintendent said the Pennsylvania company had rules of its own and that he refused to acquaint the grievance committee with those rules or to bulletin them, whereupon the committee appealed to General Manager Peck, who sustained the general superintendent. Mr. Peck, the circular states, would not discuss the schedule with the committee and would not agree to meet its "counselor," saying, "If you mean Mr. Morrissey (the grand master of the brotherhood), I tell you frankly that I won't meet him."

Then the grievance committee asked the grand master to come to its assistance, and Val Fitzpatrick was sent here. He wrote Mr. Peck on August 23 and on August 24 received an answer, in which Mr. Peck said he had gone over the matter with the committee and did not care to discuss the subject further.

Fitzpatrick wrote to Peck again. Then, the circular states, 10 members of the general grievance committee were ordered to go back to work under penalty of dismissal, and on August 3 Peck wrote that he would not meet the committee and would not answer any more communications, and later, when Fitzpatrick wrote and asked that Peck meet him and the committee, the general manager sent a letter, informing Fitzpatrick that he had already informed the "committee of our employes," that their request could not be granted, and had fully explained to that committee the reasons for his decision; he had heard everything the committee had to offer and did not care to meet it again. The circular continues as follows:

How the Question Is Presented.

In justice to the situation we call your attention to the statements made by the officials that they have rules and regulations pertaining to working conditions which they refuse to make known to the employes. This is the best evidence that the position of the employes is equitable, and we might say that we do not know of any neighboring line that denies its employes the right to bargain for wages and conditions. The refusal of the officials to permit certain committeemen to lay off and compelling others who were on leave of absence to return to service before the work of the committee was completed is surely evidence of hostility toward the right of employes to organize and be represented by a committee. So if the employes ever hope to obtain fair working conditions and wages commensurate with wages paid on neighboring lines they must express it by their vote.

At the foot of the circular is a blank form for voting either for or against a strike.

The following are the most important items in the wage schedule: Through freight service, conductors, 3 1-3 cents a mile; flagmen, 2½ cents; brakemen, 2 1-3 cents; local runs, conductors, 4 cents a mile; flagmen, 3 1-5 cents, and brakemen, 3 cents; maintenance of way work train, conductors in charge of construction gang, 35 cents an hour; conductors in charge of crew only, 33 cents; passenger brakemen and baggage men to receive an increase of 10 per cent over their present pay and mileage is to be computed on a 10-mile an hour basis. Section 15 of article 2 requires that all conductors and brakemen on duty 15 hours shall be allowed 10 hours' rest.

New Rates of Pay Asked.

The following are the rates of pay asked for yardmen: Conductors, days, 31 cents an hour, and nights, 33 cents; brakemen, days, 28 cents, and nights, 30 cents; flagmen are to receive one cent an hour more than the brakemen, and 10 hours or less are to constitute a day's work.

These are some of the general rules applying to yard, road and yard men: Thirty minutes are to constitute an hour; all B. R. T. men properly introduced are to receive free transportation over the northwest (Fort Wayne) system; no fines shall be imposed; conductors or brakemen called for other duty than that for which they were employed shall have the privilege of refusing to do the work; a board of inquiry shall be formed at all points where trainmasters are stationed; no conductor or brakeman may be dismissed except after a fair trial by a board of inquiry, at which the accused shall have the right to be present; all conductors and brakemen in continuous service for five years shall be allowed an annual pass over the Pennsylvania lines west for themselves and their wives.

It is asserted by members of the Brotherhood that two of the three members of the grievance committee who signed the schedule submitted to the company, Leroy Kelly and John L. Carey, were discharged, and that H. A. Pressl, another member of the committee, was also discharged, ostensibly because he did not report back for duty when ordered to do so by his division superintendent.

This is the system by which the vote on the strike proposition is taken: Each member of the general grievance committee, who is the chairman of his local grievance committee, reads before his local the circular issued by the general grievance committee and the proposed schedule of wages and working conditions. Each member of the local fills out a voting blank and hands it in in a sealed envelope to the chairman. Most of the locals have voted and the envelopes are in the hands of the general grievance committee meeting at the Seventh Avenue hotel. It had been intended to count the vote on Saturday, but it was said yesterday that it might be put off until Monday.

Manager Peck Would Not Talk.

General Manager Peck refused last night to discuss the circular. It is understood that the Pennsylvania will not accept the schedule because, by its provisions, the company must sign an agreement with the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, thus recognizing a labor union.

The wages asked under the schedule are what is known as "Chicago pay," which is higher than the wages paid on railroads in the east. Three years ago P. H. Morrissey, grandmaster of the Brotherhood, promised the members that he would have the wages on western railroad lines increased, and a year ago the railroads out there came to the union's terms. Trainmen say that Morrissey made the eastern members a similar promise and that the present situation has arisen in consequence.

IF LENA REPAIRS HERE SHE MUST BE DISARMED

This is Substance of President's Message to the State Department.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—"If captain of the Lena has indicated his intention to repair and disarm his vessel, have his request complied with by Goodrich. If such request has not been made, inform captain of Lena and Russian ambassador that this government must be immediately informed whether such request will be made. If it is not made, United States will make official examination, demanding immediate disarmament to the end of the war, if necessary repairs require long time.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The foregoing is the full text of the important telegraphic instructions given the state department today by the president personally from Oyster Bay. The telegram indicates Russia will be made to declare her intentions with respect to the Lena.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 14.—Count Yama Osichi, a young Japanese nobleman, who with his suite passed through here today en route to Seattle, declares that the Lena's injuries were caused by gunshots inflicted upon her by Japanese cruisers in the vicinity of Redfield Reef, hundreds of miles west of Cape Flattery.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—No confirmation can be obtained here of the story from St. Paul that the Lena had been engaged with two Japanese cruisers in the vicinity of Redfield Reef. United States Inspector Bulger found no marks of the Lena's having been in conflict.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 14.—Telegraphic inquiries by the admiralty have elicited the information from Vladivostok that the Lena was sent to the Pacific with the view of stopping the shipment of contraband of war. There is an intimation also that several other vessels, probably merchantmen purchased in Germany and converted into armed cruisers, are in the Pacific on a similar mission.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 14.—H. M. S. Grafton, flagship of the Pacific squadron, which left here some days ago to get her annual heavy gun practice at Comox, returned unexpectedly to Esquimalt early Tuesday. The cause of the Grafton's return is connected with the sudden appearance of the Russian armed auxiliary cruiser Lena in San Francisco. It is understood the Grafton is under cabled orders from the British admiralty to protect British shipping on the American side of the Pacific at all costs.

DIED.

PYLE—On Tuesday, September 13, 1904, at West Newton, from tuberculosis, MRS. CHARLES W. PYLE.

Funeral services will be held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, in West Newton at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Interment in West Newton cemetery.

There are fashions for everybody in the October Designer, from the pink tot blinking for the first time in the world's sunlight to the dear grandmothers, who will be interested and pleased with the designs shown for their especial benefit in "Growing Old Gracefully." There is good reading, too, for everybody. Even the man of the family, who with artful intent professes scorn for a woman's fashion magazine, will chuckle over "Naming the Birdsall Baby," and may profit by "Fashion Notes for Men." The daughters of the romantic age will appreciate "A Mislaid Proposal" and "Glimpses Into the Life of a Japanese Girl," while the little folks will enjoy the thrilling history of the prairie dog "Dicky-Doo" and the tantalizing puzzles in "Knots and Whatnots." Those who are inclined to look on the dark side will be shamed out of their gloomy thoughts by the accounts of the brave unostentatious sisters who have battled upward to success, as told in "What Women Are Doing;" and she who feels that advancing years have made her a back number will promptly brush away such foolish ideas when she reads "The Sunset Days of Famous Women." There is fancy work galore in this issue; knitted and crocheted sweaters, child's petticoats and toboggan caps, directions for making dainty candle shades and further instruction for hardanger embroidery, and all kinds of new trimmings and feminine knick-knacks are pictured and described in "Fads and Fancies" and "Fashions and Fabrics," while "Points on Dressmaking" gives full instruction for making a complete Norfolk suit for a small boy. The Designer departments are "practical" in every sense of the word.

CHEERED BY MEN OF FREMONT'S DAY

Senator Fairbanks Speaks at Republican Semi-Centennial in Saratoga.

MAKES A HAPPY ALLUSION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Rain which fell in torrents did not prevent a good attendance at the Republican party's semi-centennial tonight. The celebration was brought about by a committee composed of surviving delegates to the first regular Republican state convention held here on August 16, 1854. Occupying seats on the platform were 125 white-haired veterans who voted for John C. Fremont.

The meeting was addressed by United States Senators Charles W. Fairbanks and Chauncey M. Depew, and by Major Francis B. Fremont, a son of John C. Fremont. The presiding officer was Frederick W. Seward, son of Lincoln's secretary of state.

Chairman Seward introduced Senator Fairbanks as "The next vice president of the United States," and the candidate received a great ovation when he rose to speak. While the cheering was in progress a flashlight photograph was taken, and the burning powder sent up a great ring of smoke. Senator Depew leaped to his feet and pointed to it, and as soon as the audience had become quiet, Senator Fairbanks stretched his hand upward and said:

"That looks like a halo that crowns 50 years of patriotic service."

This caused another outburst of applause. The candidate then began his address. He said in part:

> You do well to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the Republican party within the Empire State. It has done more for human freedom than any other political agency since the Pilgrims landed upon Plymouth Rock.
>
> The Republican party has not been the nerveless party of expediency. It has met every emergency which has arisen upon the high level of duty and honor. Above mere party triumph it has put the welfare of the people.
>
> The Republican party has stood for the inflexible maintenance of the public credit. It has stood by the financial honor of the government. It has regarded a sound and honest monetary system more essential in the advancement of our national welfare and honor than the maintenance of an army or the construction of a navy.
>
> It has stood with intelligent and superb courage for the achievement of our industrial independence. Through good and evil report it has borne aloft the banner of protection to American industry. Our incomparable material development stands as a mighty monument to the constructive and patriotic wisdom of the Republican party.
>
> We seek the world's markets. We must first win and hold the world's respect. Our increased influence in international affairs does not grow out of any alliance with other powers. The warning of the fathers of the republic against forming entangling alliances with other powers is as sound today as ever, and it must continue one of the great controlling principles in our international affairs.
>
> The Republican party not only gave freedom to the oppressed in our own country, but it has given liberty to millions in the distant islands of the seas. It has been inspired by no thought of territorial aggrandizement, by no dream of empire. It has been inspired by the spirit of Christian civilization, and by the dictates of exalted national duty. It will meet the supreme responsibility in a manner to strengthen and not to subvert our Republican institutions.
>
> Where are the trophies of the Republican party? There stands, chiefest of all, the nation which was baptized in the flames of civil war and sanctified anew to the sacred cause of human freedom. There is our financial credit, as sacredly preserved as the life of the republic. There is the gold standard. There is our industrial system, which is the marvel of the age. There is the Panama canal, which crowns the futile efforts of centuries.
>
> A party which has risen to the full level of duty in the past may be trusted in the future. We may well put our confidence in the bridge which has carried us over.

QUESTION LEGALITY OF M'ILVAIN'S ORDINANCE

Allegheny Director Wants to Award Contract on a Bid Higher Than the Estimate.

Director McIlvain of the public works department of Allegheny has prepared an ordinance providing for the award of a contract to the C. F. Knapp Company for the repairing of the city light plant that was partially destroyed by fire several weeks ago. A measure authorizing the advertising of bids for the work was passed at the July meeting of councils. It was accompanied by the estimate of $31,250, prepared by Director McIlvain.

When the bids were opened it was found that the bid of the Knapp Company, $33,472, was the lowest. Now McIlvain acknowledges that he made a mistake in his estimate and says that he considers the bid of the Knapp Company very reasonable. This ordinance was to have been presented yesterday in select council, but that body did not meet because of no quorum.

There is some question as to the legality of giving the contract to a firm bidding in excess of the estimate submitted by the director. The charter ordinance provides that contracts shall be let to the lowest bidder, and that the bid shall not exceed the amount of the estimate prepared by the head of the department.

Controller Brown was asked yesterday what he thought of the new measure, and replied that he had been advised by Assistant City Solicitor Craig Smith that there was nothing irregular in the ordinance. Brown thinks the proper way to get out of the difficulty is to re-advertise. He says he will get further advice on the subject before proceeding with it.

PEABODY'S ADMINISTRATION UPHELD BY CONVENTION

Colorado's Governor Is Renominated by Republicans—Fearless Platform Adopted.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

DENVER, COL., Sept. 14.—The Republican state convention today nominated the following ticket: Governor, James H. Peabody; lieutenant governor, Jesse F. McDonald; treasurer, J. A. Holmberg; secretary of state, James Cowie; auditor, A. E. Bent; attoreny general, H. C. Miller; superintendent of public instruction, Katherine L. Craig; congressman-at-large, Franklin E. Brooks.

The platform indorses the administration of Gov. Peabody and calls on all citizens, irrespective of party, to support him in his efforts to "rebuke the spirit of lawlessness which would turn popular government into irresponsible despotism and keep alive class hatred, lawlessness and treason."

The platform pledges the candidates to restrain any excesses, whether practiced by capital or labor.

TWO BRAKEMEN KILLED.

Run Over by Train at Glenwood and Braddock—Three Other Violent Deaths Reported.

Earl Barry, aged 21, a brakeman of Valley Grove, W. Va., died at the Passavant hospital yesterday afternoon from injuries received by being run over by a train on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Glenwood at noon yesterday.

Noble Kulp, aged 22, a brakeman on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, died at the McKeesport hospital yesterday from injuries received by being struck by a train at Braddock early yesterday morning.

Jacob Ross, aged 6, son of A. Ross of 42 Cicero alley, Allentown, was killed by a Knoxville street car yesterday morning in Washington avenue, Mt. Washington. The boy had climbed an embankment and in descending was unable to check himself and ran in front of the car. Motorman F. Steiner could not stop the car before it struck the boy. Steiner was arrested, but bail was accepted for his appearance.

The body of a female infant, about 6 days old, was found in an outbuilding at 824 Jerome street, McKeesport, yesterday. It is believed the child was strangled to death.

John Parkinson, aged 21, of Boston, was killed by a fall of slate in mine No. 2 of the Brown's mines at that place yesterday.

Maine Plurality Is 27,130.

PORTLAND, ME., Sept. 14.—A Republican plurality of 27,130 is shown by complete returns from the state election. The total vote for governor was: Cobb, Republican, 78,400; Davis, Democrat, 51,350.

TELLS STORY OF RETREAT

the Tai-Tse river. Only at certain points was this carried out successfully.

"At nightfall, undisturbed by the Japanese, we commenced the evacuation of our positions, which already had rendered great service in weakening the enemy by enormous losses. Thanks to the sufficient number of bridges, and the manner in which the roads leading to them had been laid out, all the troops destined to take the offensive were safely on the right bank of the river on the morning of September 1. The enemy did not occupy our abandoned advance positions until the evening of September 1, when they opened an artillery fire upon Liao-Yang. No trophies of war fell into the hands of the enemy.

Plans That Miscarried.

"I adopted the following plan of operations:

"Having crossed to the right bank of the river, the army had taken up a position between the village of Sykwantun and the heights near the Yen-Tai mines, which it was intended to occupy with all our detachments, composed of 13 battalions. Taking the position near Sykwantun as a pivot, it was intended that the army effect a movement to flank the Japanese positions which extended from the Tai-Tse river, near the village of Kwantun, toward the Yen-Tai collieries. Offensive operations began when all the troops had taken up their allotted positions.

"The night of September 1 the commander of the corps on the right flank sent a dispatch stating that the Japanese, having taken the offensive and occupied the district northwestward of our Sykwantun position, which was of great importance to us, the Russian regiment holding the district was forced to retire. I was obliged to change my plans in order to retake the lost ground the following day. It was not until the evening of September 2 that the entire mountain village of Sykwantun was in our hands.

"At first our attacks did not succeed, but the fighting was continued with unabated vigor, even after darkness had set in. We repeatedly gained possession of the heights, but were finally compelled to withdraw temporarily. Many of our detachments became mixed up, and in the disorder unity of command was rendered very difficult. Leaders of individual detachments, however, continued the attacks time after time, and at last succeeded in occupying the desired position, thereby attaining the object of the operations on our right flank.

Lost in the Corn Fields.

"As soon as the left flank in the vicinity of the Yen-tai mines, on September 2 (Orloff's detachment), occupied the heights to the north of the mines, holding a strong position facing south, he opened fire with two batteries and engaged the army in an artillery duel. Orloff's right flank was then four miles from the left flank and the remainder of the army. In order to aid our troops holding positions near Sykwantun, Orloff sent part of his force from the hills and attacked the enemy in the direction of the village of Sakhumoon. This movement was carried out in confusion. Our men met with a frontal and a flank fire, and, losing their bearings in the corn fields, began to retire. The troops remaining in the hills also retired westward.

"By that time Orloff's detachment was within a mile and a third of other forces. Orloff himself was wounded, as also was Gen. Fomin, who subsequently died.

"After the evacuation of the position which had been intended to serve as a base for our attack, the Japanese extended northward and occupied the whole range of hills and the Yen-tai mines. Samsonoff's sotnia of Cossacks dismounted and defended our positions with the utmost courage, but were gradually driven back.

Lost His Commissary.

"The enemy was now established in an extremely strong position on the hills, and it would have been too hazardous for our left flank to attack them, in view of the losses sustained in the previous five days. We therefore withdrew to the village of Tallenko, and I decided to retire to Mukden, the retreat being accomplished on September 7.

"The evacuation of Liao-Yang began and was concluded the morning of September 4. All our equipment was removed, and there was no time to save the commissariat reserves, which was sufficient to last the whole army eight days. These were all destroyed. The pontoon bridges were dismantled and carried off by the troops, while temporary pontoons were burned and the railway bridge wrecked. The army retired in perfect order. The enemy attempted to pursue, but was repulsed.

"Precautions were taken on September 3 and 4 to prevent a turning movement from the east. The Japanese to the southward took no vigorous initiative, but Gen. Kuroki assumed the offensive to the eastward. Our detachments holding positions at Ta Lien Kou sustained a furious night attack, which was particularly desperate on September 5. We retained our position, but suffered heavy losses, one regiment, which bore the brunt of the fight, losing 500 in killed or wounded.

"By the evening of September 5 the danger of a simultaneous attack on our front and left flank had disappeared. The removal of our artillery, transport and baggage trains was effected in the face of immense difficulties, but was successfully concluded. Our retirement to Mukden on September 7 was covered by a strong rear guard of cavalry.

"We abandoned nothing from August 30 up to the time of our arrival at Mukden. Our engineers worked with the greatest devotion. Throughout all the fighting they rendered invaluable service in making and repairing roads and assisting in the railway traffic.

PORT ARTHUR FORTRESS IN DESPERATE STRAITS

Viceroy Alexieff Asks to Be Relieved of His Functions as Commander-in-Chief.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, Sept. 15.—The Journal's St. Petersburg correspondent says: "A very high personage informs me that the emperor has received a report from Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel to the effect that the situation of Port Arthur is most critical. For a week there has been no meat and only a small quantity of flour, while the ammunition there is not sufficient for a long resistance. Everything is prepared for the blowing up of the fortifications in the event of a successful Japanese assault."

The correspondent at St. Petersburg of the Echo de Paris says: "I learn authoritatively that Viceroy Alexieff asked to be relieved of the functions of commander-in-chief by land and sea of the Russian forces in the far east, but not of those of viceroy, his object being to avoid giving a semblance of consistency to the reports of antagonism between himself and Gen. Kuropatkin."

Shaw at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 14.—Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, addressed an audience at Kansas City, Kas., tonight. Thursday night he will speak at Fort Scott, Kas., and Friday night at Springfield, Mo.

CAUSTIC LAMPOON OF JUDGE PARKER

Fassett Creates Great Enthusiasm in Speech Before Saratoga Convention.

HIGGINS LEADS FOR GOVERNOR

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The first day's session of the Republican state convention has been held. It has developed the utmost friendliness for President Roosevelt. The delegates assembled with manifest good spirit and cheer, the speech of J. Sloat Fassett, the temporary chairman, being the important incident of the session.

There is every reason to believe that the following ticket, chosen by the Higgins supporters, will be nominated tomorrow: Governor, Frank W. Higgins; lieutenant governor, M. Linn Bruce; secretary of state, John F. O'Brien; attorney general, Julius M. Mayer; treasurer, John D. Wallenmeier; engineer and surveyor, Henry A. Van Alstyne; chief judge of the court of appeals, Edgar M. Cullen; associate judge of the court of appeals, William E. Werner.

Although there is no assurance that this ticket can be nominated without a roll call on the nomination for governor, the air is still full of rumors late tonight that a settlement may be reached and the unanimous nomination of Higgins accomplished on the first ballot.

Woodruff Still in the Ring.

At 11:30 tonight Mr. Woodruff came from his headquarters after a protracted conference with friends and said:

"My name will go before the convention tomorrow."

Replying to an inquiry as to the number of votes he would have, he said: "I don't know. That does not have much to do with the matter anyway."

In opening his speech Temporary Chairman Fassett said:

"Not being a Democratic nominee for the presidency, I shall have no hesitation in discussing public issues."

He then reviewed the growth of the Republican party for the last 50 years, saying its greatest asset is the record of what it had done, and inquiring why there should be a change.

"What accomplishments of the Democratic party, whenever it has been in power during the last half century, gives us any encouragement to trust them again?" he inquired. "We search their platform and listen to their candidates and read their newspapers in vain for any comprehensive, coherent system of plan for the bettering of our conditions. We have waited in vain for some strong, clear, unmistakable, commendable American policy to be announced by the Democratic candidate."

Glowing Tribute to Roosevelt.

Mr. Fassett concluded his speech with a glowing eulogy of President Roosevelt. The mention of the president's name aroused the delegates to a great pitch of enthusiasm. The convention rose and gave cheers to the name of Roosevelt, which had been coupled with that of McKinley. Another sentence that immensely pleased the convention was: "It means a better chance today for a child to be born under the Stars and Stripes than under any other flag beneath the sun."

The speaker returned to Judge Parker and provoked laughter by such sallies as "Judge Parker says he is open to conviction; and I think our president has convicted him"—"The fact is, that when you have called a man a Democrat, you have not described him"—"Democracy's great cry from Macedonia today is: 'Oh, somebody come and lead us home!'"—"No brake, however admirably constructed, ever yet was worth a button as a wheel."

INFORMATION WANTED BEFORE PROCEEDING

Consideration of New Trolley Bills Postponed Until Purposes of Same Are Made Clear.

The special committee of select council appointed to consider the ordinances of the Pittsburgh Railways Company for new franchises met last night for the first time, but took no action except to elect a chairman. Consideration of the ordinances was postponed, on the motion of Dr. H. B. Burns, until a representative of the company could be present to explain the purposes of the franchises asked for.

Dr. E. R. Walters, member from the Twentieth ward, was elected chairman of the committee. Dr. Burns said that he could not favor ordinances granting exclusive franchises unless he understood thoroughly every detail. He said it was the duty of the company to send a representative to give the commitee information.

The committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman. This committee is supposed to be favorable to the Hall company, which claims the right-of-way in Seventh avenue and Grant street under charters obtained some time ago from the state, but for which, up to this time, they have failed to get franchises from councils.

WANT SCALE REVISED.

Manufacturers Ask for a Conference With Boiler Makers' Helpers.

The Manufacturers' association has sent a request to the Boiler Makers' Helpers for a conference to revise the scale of wages. A conference is to be held, at some future date to be arranged, when each side will appoint a committee.

The helpers' scale was adjusted by arbitration last year. It gave the workmen $3 15 a day, the scale to be valid for five years unless either side requested a change, the change to be effective four months after the request had been made. This means the helpers will have different working conditions and probably a reduction by January 1.

Shot Driver Through an Ear.

Bedford Knoffels, an Austrian, was committed to jail last night by Burgess Jones of Homestead on a charge of felonious assault and battery, on the information of Chauncey Warner, who alleges Knoffels shot him in the ear Tuesday night. Warner was driving in a buggy with a friend and Knoffels appeared in the roadway and pointing a revolver at the carriage fired twice. The Austrian said he was intoxicated at the time and did not know what he was doing.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS WILL ARRIVE HERE TODAY

Members of Society of the Chemical Industry Will Spend Two Days Seeing Pittsburgh.

Members of the Society of the Chemical Industry who have attended the annual meeting in New York will arrive in Pittsburgh this afternoon and remain here two days while on their way to the world's fair in St. Louis. The tourists are making the trip on a special train, and there are more than 100 people in the party.

The visitors will dine at the Hotel Schenley upon their arrival and will spend the evening at the exposition. Tomorrow the men will visit the Westinghouse plants and the steel mills at Braddock and Homestead and take luncheon at Kennywood park. The women will be given a carriage drive through the East End residence district and will be entertained at the country club. A smoker will be held at the Schenley in the evening, while the women will attend a theater. All the members of the party will take luncheon at the Union club on Saturday and will board their special train for the journey to St. Louis early in the evening.

In the party are some of the most distinguished members of the profession. England has the largest visiting delegation, while Germany, Holland, Australia and India will be represented. The society was formed in England, and this is the first meeting held in America.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET NOMINATED IN CONNECTICUT

Platform Specially Indorses and Approves the Administration of President Roosevelt.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 14.—The Republican state ticket placed in nomination by the state convention in this city today was as follows: Governor, Henry Roberts of Hartford; lieutenant governor, Rollin S. Woodruff, New Haven; secretary of state, Theodore Bodenwein, New London; state treasurer, James F. Walsh, Greenwich; comptroller, Asahel W. Mitchell, Woodbury; congressman-at-large, George L. Lilley, Waterbury.

The platform indorses the nomination of Roosevelt and Fairbanks and ratifies the national platform. It specially indorses and approves the administration of President Roosevelt "on account of what has been done to absolutely establish the gold standard, the integrity and value of our national currency, the establishment of peace, freedom, order and prosperity in Porto Rico and the Philippines; the work of connecting the Pacific and the Atlantic oceans by the isthmian canal; the enforcement of laws concerning the great corporations; the restoration of arid lands of the United States so as to make them susceptible to cultivation; the settlement of the Alaskan boundary question; the vigorous, dignified, amicable policy in our dealings with foreign nations and the steps that have been taken to extend the peaceful settlement of all international differences by arbitration."

PARKER IS REFEREE.

Candidate Goes to New York to Settle Quarrel Between Belmont and Taggart.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Judge Parker left Rosemount tonight bound for New York aboard John B. McDonald's yacht, the Sapphire. It will anchor off Eighty-sixth street and North river. It is probable that the Democratic party leaders will meet him there. He intends to return to Esopus on Friday.

It is openly said here that very soon after his arrival the retirement of August Belmont from any hand in the management of the national campaign is expected. Belmont has hampered the work of the committee, it is said, and the breach has become so wide between him and Chairman Taggart that Judge Parker was asked to go to the city and settle the quarrel. Taggart has said that either he or Belmont must get out of headquarters.

CONDEMNED MAN TAKEN TO CHURCH AND IMMERSED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—James Calahan, or James Haden, the negro murderer of Moss Bay, who will be hanged in the Washington county jail on October 4, was late last night handcuffed and taken to the Nazareth Baptist church and immersed in the baptismal fount.

Wreaths Placed on McKinley's Tomb.

CANTON, O., Sept. 14.—Today, the third anniversary of the death of President McKinley, was noted with deep sorrow in his home city. Wreaths of flowers from Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and others were laid on the casket. Mrs. McKinley placed fresh flowers on the casket.

RAPIDLY DIGGING PANAMA CANAL

More Work Done With Fewer Men and at Less Cost Than by the French.

NATIVES ARE NOW SATISFIED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.

On arrival here today of the Panama steamship Finance from Colon, Rear Admiral Walker, head of the Panama canal commission, admitted that revolutionary placards had made their way in the canal zone, but declared everything at present seemed to be quiet and satisfactory to the people of the new republic. The reports, he said, of political excitement in Panama were greatly exaggerated.

At the same time Rear Admiral Walker asserted this government intended to keep the two open ports in the zone, in spite of any protests which might be made by the isthmian government. He added that he did not expect any trouble over the making of Ancon, on the Panama side of the isthmus, and Cristobal, near Colon, free ports of entry.

Accompanying Rear Admiral Walker were Commissioners Frank Hecker, William H. Burr, Charles E. Grunsky and Benjamin Harrod. Rear Admiral Walker said that the work of excavation was now proceeding twice as fast, with fewer men and at half of the cost, as under the French company.

"The canal construction work," he said, "is being rapidly systematized and provision has already been made for the installation of American excavating machinery to determine certain features of progress and cost at Culebra, where work is also being carried on with the appliances used by the French company."

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Allegheny Preparatory school reopens September 21, 1904. The Headmaster will be at the school office after September 8, between 9 a. m. and 1 p. m., to meet and classify pupils, to talk with intending patrons and to show those who may wish to see them the building and equipment. The school provides instruction for boys and girls from the first year of school life till they are ready for any American college or university. The work is done by 15 expert teachers.

A well equipped gymnasium and a large playground, under the exclusive control of the school, offer ample opportunity for sports and games. These are individual "corrective work," under trained directors, give the physical development of both boys and girls its due emphasis. Oral expression, singing, reading aloud, public speaking and debates have their proper place in the curriculum.

Owing to its non-commercial character, the entire income of the school can be applied in making the school better. The building has just been redecorated throughout.

For our new circular and any further information, address the Headmaster, Wilmot R. Jones, 900 Lincoln Avenue, Allegheny, Pa.

STRONG ATTACK ON LINEAR TAX

Corporations Contend New Law Gives City Power to Drive Them Into Bankruptcy.

ARRAY OF ABLE LEGAL TALENT

The long-anticipated hearing of the linear tax case began yesterday in common pleas court No. 2, with Judge Frazer on the bench, four of the principal public service corporations taxed under the new law defending themselves against the tax which the city of Pittsburgh seeks to impose on them. These four corporations are the Pittsburgh Railways Company, the Philadelphia Company, the Allegheny County Light Company and the Consolidated Gas Company. The taxes of these four companies aggregate $351,678 25, the Pittsburgh Railways Company being the heaviest assessed.

The linear tax law was enacted by councils last year and, under the law, the taxes were assessed this spring by the city treasurer. The taxes became delinquent May 1, and when the treasurer gave notice of his intention to bring suit the Philadelphia Company and subsidiary companies filed a suit in equity and asked for an injunction to restrain the treasurer from collecting the tax.

The present hearing is to test the legality of the law. Slightly different matters are set up by each of the four companies, and, as the Pittsburgh Railways Company is considered the principal plaintiff, its case is being heard first. Both sides in the case have quite an array of legal talent. Former Judges E. H. Stowe and J. H. Reed and Attorney E. W. Smith represent the corporations. W. B. Rodgers, city solicitor, and his assistant, Thomas D. Carnahan, represent the city.

Only One Witness.

In the hearing yesterday the facts were not disputed to any extent, it being recognized that the result of the case depends almost entirely upon the construction of the law by the court. But one witness was called, E. G. Nicewaner, superintendent of the city bureau of highways and sewers.

His testimony was to show that there were no other corporations, individuals or other concerns, excepting the public service corporations, on which the tax could be imposed. On cross-examination he admitted that he was in ignorance of any contracts that might exist under which enterprises or individuals might dispose of their surplus power.

For the corporation ex-Judge Stowe argued that he did not believe any court would decide that the tax or license was enforceable. The state laws, he contended, had carefully covered the matter of taxation for corporations and had made ample provision that the amount already collected from street railway companies should be sufficient.

The act imposing the tax, he said, has made the amount paid by the company to the state enormous, and if such a tax as now imposed by the city is collectable the company would be paying a fraction over 7 per cent of its belongings.

Linear Tax Unreasonable.

This taxation would be unreasonable and far beyond any amount paid by other enterprises or individuals, Judge Stowe argued. The present rate of 25 cents a lineal foot as proposed, he contended, is not based on any condition, and there was nothing to hinder the city from making the amount $1 or $5, and thereby drive the corporation into bankruptcy.

Counsel for the city took the position that the charter act of 1901 gave ample authority for fixing the license or lineal tax, and that the city's power in this respect was fixed by the law.

Mr. Smith, for the plaintiff, contended that the city was without authority to impose the tax.

STRIKING COAL MINER ENTERS SUIT FOR WAGES

Clyde Coal Company Refuses to Pay Workmen Until They Vacate the Company's Houses.

The strike of the miners employed by the Clyde Coal Company resulted in S. Seifried entering suit against the company yesterday for wages. The information was made before Justice Ammons of Millsboro. The allegation is made that the company refused to pay Seifried and all other miners living in company houses until they vacate the premises.

President Patrick Dolan says he will push the suit through to the supreme court if necessary. He claims the men cannot be ejected until after a 30-day notice has been served. He also says the company cannot hold back the men's pay.

None of the miners working for the Clyde Coal Company were paid Monday, with the exception of those not living in company houses. Should Seifried win all the other miners will enter similar suits.

After the return of the general organizers from Fredrickstown, where the Clyde company's mine is, the district board met and decided to ship there several tents this morning. A five-acre plot of ground has been leased, and those evicted will live in the tents and receive support from the union.

The mine is operated by Jesse Sanford, director of a bank at Millsboro. It was reported at the miners' headquarters that several men had accounts with the bank and that they intend drawing out their savings.

The district board expects a bitter fight and decided yesterday to spare no expense to win it. The trouble arose over the company refusing to allow the miners to employ a checkweighman to see the coal is weighed accurately.

Investigation Becoming Costly.

The cost of investigating the charges of "graft" in Homestead is greater than was expected. John F. Cox, chairman of the investigating committee, yesterday drew on the borough treasurer for $500, the $100 already drawn having been exhausted in meeting the expenses of witnesses brought from a distance. The committee held another star chamber session last evening, at which most of the former witnesses were re-examined. Nothing was given out.

Sauers' Tavern Auspiciously Opened.

Joseph H. and John Sauers yesterday opened their splendidly equipped tavern at 311 Federal street, Allegheny. Crowds thronged the tavern all day and everyone expressed wonder over the beauty of the place. Liefeld's Venetian orchestra furnished delightful music and each guest was given a souvenir, the women a small Russian leather pocket mirror and the men a leather pocketbook.

BOYS IN KHAKI TO MARCH TODAY

Delegates to Convention of American Veterans of Foreign Service to Parade.

THE ASSOCIATIONS TO UNITE

Soldiers and sailors who carried the Stars and Stripes to foreign shores will march through the streets of Pittsburgh today, when the members of the American Veterans of the Foreign Service turn out in parade in honor of their second annual encampment. The procession will be representative of the country's youngest generation of defenders, and while the demonstration will not be large, it will signalize the organization of the strongest body of military veterans since the forming of the Grand Army of the Republic. An organization of service men in the west has just closed its convention in Cincinnati, and an effort will be made to unite the two associations. National Commander James Romanis of Columbus, O., chief executive of the western organization, is expected in Pittsburgh today to take up the work of the amalgamation of the two associations.

The parade this morning will form under command of Chief Marshal Thomas A. Devine at 9:15 o'clock, with the right of the line resting on Water street, below Smithfield street. The parade will move along Smithfield street to Third avenue, to Grant street, to Fifth avenue, to Liberty, to Sixth street, to Federal street, to Ohio street, to North avenue, to Sherman avenue and pass in review.

An executive session of the encampment was held behind closed doors in the Carnegie Music hall yesterday afternoon and was devoted almost exclusively to routine work. About 100 delegates answered the roll call. Reports were read by the officers of the association, with the exception of Adjt. Gen. John E. Courtney of Philadelphia, who was unable to attend. The report was read by Acting Adjutant General Herbert O. Kelley of Altoona. The matter of adopting regulation uniforms and buttons to be worn by members on patriotic occasions was discussed, but definite action was deferred.

A telegram was read from Lieut.-Gov. Curtis J. Guild, Jr., of Massachusetts, stating that he could not be present to address the convention, as he is attending the St. Louis exposition. He had been appointed as the personal representative of President Roosevelt.

At the opening session in Allegheny Carnegie hall yesterday morning Junior Vice Commander George Metzger of Allegheny called the convention to order. National Chaplain John Longshaw delivered the opening invocation. City Solicitor Stephen G. Porter represented Mayor Wyman in welcoming the visitors to Allegheny, and Assistant City Solicitor John A. Blair officiated in the same capacity for Mayor Hays of Pittsburgh. National Commander Robert S. Hansbury replied on behalf of the veterans. A reception to United States army and navy officers and distinguished guests will be tendered at the Hotel Schenley tonight.

NO SUCCESSOR CHOSEN FOR EDWIN H. LEMARE

Possibility That an American Organist May Preside at Pittsburgh Carnegie Music Hall Recitals.

An American organist may preside at the grand organ in Pittsburgh Carnegie Music hall since Edwin H. Lemare, the present organist, has tendered his resignation to take effect January 12, 1905. No steps have yet been taken to secure a successor to Lemare, but the high standard attained by American organists leads many to believe that little difficulty will be encountered in finding an organist on this side of the Atlantic who can fill the position acceptably.

During the illness of Frederic Archer and Lemare's absence local organists were found who gave recitals which commanded attention among musicians and preserved the traditions of those popular free entertainments.

Nevertheless, the committee will not allow the standard to be lowered. Manager George H. Wilson said yesterday that every effort would be made to find the best organist available for the position, which is a distinction for any musician and offers exceptional advantages for the cultivation of his art. Lemare will return to this country in time to open the season on October 1, and will remain until the expiration of his contract. The illness of Mrs. Lemare is stated as the cause of his resignation.

Lemare began his first season here on March 1, 1902. He was touring this country in the summer of 1901, and was invited by the committee to give a recital in the absence of Archer, then on his deathbed. A number of other organists were heard and Lemare was here on November 3, a few weeks following Archer's death. Lemare sailed for Europe and, upon his selection by the committee, accepted the position by cable. He has been absent for several long periods, and last year made a tour of Australia.

When the committee held its meeting at noon yesterday to act upon the letter of resignation which had been received by W. N. Frew formal regret was expressed that Lemare was obliged to leave Pittsburgh.

Wedding Ended in Row.

As the result of a general fight, in which 40 men and women participated at a Polish wedding at 2724 Liberty avenue early yesterday morning, three men were badly cut and bruised and were taken to the West Penn hospital. The injured are: Ladislaw Wadliski, badly cut about the head and body with a razor; Frank Lavandiski, slashed about the head and face with a knife, and Charles Bembroski, left hand almost severed by a razor slash.

Now Is the Time to Profitably Spend Some of Your Leisure in Looking Over Autumn Fashions---The Styles Are Set.

Out-of-town friends—and in-town friends, for that matter—will please not forget that on all purchases of $5.00 or more we prepay express, postal and freight charges to any point in the country East of the Mississippi river.

The October number of McCall's Fashion Magazine is ready at the Pattern Counter. 5c. The new patterns it contains—and there is quite a lot of them—are also ready. Dollars' worth in fashion information—5 cents in money.

Today, Tomorrow, Saturday—any one of these days or all of them—our public is invited to see and criticise what is eminently fashionable for the Autumn season.

Tomorrow being excursion day to the Exposition, excursionists have a special invitation. People here in the city have already had half a week for acquainting themselves with what is new, and they have favored us with their presence by the thousands.

Our ability to take good care of any sized crowd was demonstrated yesterday in our Restaurant. An unexpected gathering took possession of our big sixth floor along about the noon hour, notwithstanding which every one in the large crowd was waited upon expeditiously, and that without any undue excitement.

With the business of the day before us we ask your best attention to some of the new Autumn things now ready for special prices—in other words under prices.

Demonstrations in West Basement.

Daily in the big Housefurnishing Department of this section of the Basement we are demonstrating many things interesting to the housewife—among them the following:

The Sultan Coffee, a mixture of Mocha and Java, and the One-Minute Coffee Pot, which, when having the necessary amount of this Sultan Coffee in it, produces the most delicious beverage that we know of. The Coffee is 35c a pound. Pots, 85c to $1.10.

The Universal Bread Mixer is again having its good points shown to women. It is quite well known. A four-loaf mixer sells for $2.00; 8 loaves, $2.50.

A neat arrangement for placing on a Gas Burner is called the Block Gas Heater. It is a hollow piece of sheet iron, no odor whatever arises from it, and it sells for 65c. This little heater will warm any small room and is especially applicable for a bathroom.

Today we begin demonstrating a new Water Filter—styled the Aquapura Filter. It is attachable to any faucet. It is of brass throughout, heavily nickeled. The cylinder is composed of genuine tripoli, a stone of peculiar formation—therefore there is nothing in this filter to get out of order. Neither can any foul matter collect, for it is the only filter in the market which is open at the bottom.

Very Low Prices for School Supplies.

The school boy or girl uses up a good many pencils, pads, pens, and like articles during the school year. If they buy them at the nearest small store, the probabilities are they pay the highest figure for them and get inferior qualities. Here the best qualities may be had for the least prices.

Grandmother Silks—and Others.

The name "grandmother silks" is suggestive. It brings to mind the time when a silk gown was worn a lifetime and often "made over" for younger members of the family. Believing there are people today who prefer quality to price, one of America's pioneer manufacturers has, after much careful thought and study, produced a reproduction of these old-time perfect silks, which he accordingly styles grandmother silks. This name is woven on the selvage and is a guarantee of its wearing qualities.

It is a beautiful, bright and lustrous silk and is shown in black, white, ivory, cream and all the leading shades.

Colored Grandmother Silks, 19 inches wide, 85c a yard.
Black Grandmother Silks, 19 inches wide, 85c a yard; 20 inches, $1.00; 22 inches, $1.25; 26 inches, $1.50; 36 inches, $2.00 a yard.

Imported Black Taffeta, something extra good, for the special price of 58c a yard.
Black Crepe de Chine, double width, 40 inches wide, real value $1.75 a yard, today $1.25.

Trifling Prices for Really Good Pictures.

If one is looking for something in good taste, and at the same time inexpensive, what could be better than a small, but genuine Etching? We have a number—very interesting subjects—framed in black and in oak, size of glass 14 inches by 28 inches, at 75c each. Just such pictures as will cost you $1.50 anywheres.

Etchings, 18x38 inches, framed in gilt, $5.00 ones at $3.00.
Etchings, 17x26 inches, elaborately framed in gilt, regular $7.50 value at $5.00.
Imported hand-colored Prints—the hunting scenes now so popular—neatly framed in oak or cherry, 75c each. These are our own importation and the subjects are exclusive with us.
Dainty French Prints, hand colored, artistically framed in gilt. Twenty subjects to select from. Charming as a small gift article. $1.00 each. Usually such pictures cost $1.00 without frame.

Women's and Children's Ribbed Underwear.

Very special prices obtain today.

Just now when the cool evenings suggest a warmer grade of underwear, we think knit underwear at special prices a timely and welcome proposition. See how very many grades we are offering at 50c the garment. Some even lower than the half dollar line.

Women's cotton Vests—swiss, ribbed or shaped—
Ribbed cotton Drawers with band or ribbed top—
Regular 75c grades, very special today at } 50c Each.
Ribbed cotton Corset Covers, high neck and long sleeves, worth all of 50c, for 40c each.
Children's ribbed Merino Vests and Drawers, white and natural, worth fully 75c, for 50c.

An Engaging Velvet Offer.

School Hats for Girls and Young Ladies.

Young people's millinery must be dainty and tasteful—it must mirror the latest modes as much as that for grown ups—it must be becoming and, most important of all, it must be girlish—but it need not be expensive. Of course, if the young lady will have nothing but the most elegant creations in youthful millinery, we can meet her views. But we are just as well satisfied to sell a neat, stylish hat for a small sum of money.

School Hats at 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and up to $3.50 and $5.00. Any of them worth a half more.
Hand-made Hats, combinations of silk and chenille—a feather or bit of ribbon and they are complete, $2.00 and $2.95.

Cages for Birds of All Kinds.

If you intend to treat your pet bird to a new home and incidentally yourself to a pretty addition to your household furnishment, step down into the West Basement and see the different sorts of birds' cages we are showing.

Cages for small birds, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $3.00, $4.50 and $5.00.
Parrot Cages, $2.25 and $2.75.
Round Brass Parrot Cages, $6.50; square brass Parrot Cages, $6.00.

50c Hose Supporters, 35c Pair.

These are women's Hose Supporters with satin pad belt. They are made of heavy ribbed silk elastic in most desirable colors.

At 25c a pair we have another line of Supporters—sateen pad, heavy lisle elastic—very special at this figure.

Thursday, September 15, 1904.

It is most gratifying news that the frosts which caused great injury in the wheat belt of Canada have done but slight damage to corn in the Dakotas. South of that line the greater part of the corn is matured and the harvesting is in progress. Some damage can still be inflicted, but enough of the crop is safe to assure the farmers of good returns from their fields. Corn and cotton are the great money crops of this country and will aid in quickening the tide of prosperity.

Prompt denial is made by the German foreign office of the story that Germany had made an agreement to assist Russia in the far east, particularly in the negotiation of fair terms of peace. This denial is probably more for the benefit of the German public than to allay possible diplomatic suspicions. The German people are not in accord with the German imperial sympathy for Russia, and they are not anxious to have their country any more deeply involved in far eastern politics than at present.

Dr. Van Dyke's proposal for the settlement of the famous Presbyterian church controversy is at once reasonable and practical. It points the way by which the Free church can realize the highest usefulness from the property confirmed to the minority by the courts without relinquishing a jot of the principle so firmly contended for. His solution is applauded in England, where he is thanked for showing the way to cut a Gordian knot, and it will probably be as well received in Scotland.

A reduction in the weight of the baker's loaf of bread is the way in which the advanced price of wheat reaches many consumers. There has been no undue delay in reaching them. The bakers are using the flour that was milled last month or the month before, yet the price is put up the moment the Chicago wheat pit sees danger signals ahead. It is probable, however, that the increase in the size of the loaf will not follow as promptly upon a decline in the price of wheat. No doubt there will be a shortage in the world's wheat supply this year, but there is more profit in anticipation than in participation, to paraphrase an old proverb.

Prince Mirsky, according to advices via Vienna, has been greatly shocked by recent attacks upon the Jews in Russia and has written to the governors of provinces instructing them to afford ample protection to Jewish citizens. If this be true, Prince Mirsky may be welcomed as the most humane and enlightened minister of the interior Russia has had for years. Neither von Plehve nor his immediate predecessor had any sympathy for the oppressed race. If they did not actually incite the peasantry to outrages, culminating in the Kisheneff affair, they encouraged them by winking at the offense. Prince Mirsky can serve his country no better than by demanding that his provincial governors shall give adequate protection to all citizens and that they shall deal justly by the whole people. Russia will look in vain for sympathy from the civilized world while it countenances cruelty and injustice to its own subjects.

There is not much present practical value in the resolution adopted by the interparliamentary union proposing intercession to bring about peace between Russia and Japan. There is no prospect that either belligerent would give respectful hearing to a representation at this time. A little later, possibly, there may be an opening, and we doubt not that President Roosevelt, Emperor William, Emperor Francis Joseph or King Christian will be willing to tender good offices to that end should President Loubet and King Edward feel that their alliances are a bar to their initiative. The whole world would like to see peace restored, but nearly the whole world feels that this is an inopportune moment to propose it. In the meantime the interparliamentary union has a more fruitful field of effort in the direction of formulating provisions for preventing war in the future. The nations are all feeling the stress of keeping up military establishments and armaments necessary to keep the peace and prevent aggression.

A reader at Edgewood, who writes to commend our fairness to the opposition and who expresses frank admiration of President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance, falls into error on one point. He says the president has not explained "the haste with which we interfered to make good the secession of Panama." If he will read again the passage upon that subject he will find it was for the purpose of preventing interminable disorder in that part of the world. This nation was bound by solemn treaty, many years ago, to preserve peace and order in the traffic zone across the isthmus. Had recognition of Panama been refused the fulfillment of that duty would have required the presence there of American warships and American soldiers, probably for years. By instant recognition of the new state the matter was settled at once. There was no interference "to make good the secession." There was only a declaration that there must be no violation of the peace of the traffic zone. Colombian troops landed on Panama soil without hindrance, but were warned off the railroad and canal strip. The reason for action is ample.

The Connecticut Platform.

Connecticut is one of the states that the Democrats figured upon carrying when they nominated Judge Parker. Judging from the platform adopted by the Republican convention of that state yesterday, there is perfect willingness to meet the Democrats squarely upon the issues presented by President Roosevelt's administration. On all the points against which the Democratic attack is directed the course of the administration is specially commended. If the Democratic party thinks it can make anything on those lines it is welcome to try.

Since the Republican party was organized the only Democratic candidates who have carried Connecticut have been Tilden in 1876 and Cleveland every time he ran. The Republican plurality, when there was one, has always been small until 1896, when it jumped to the amazing figure of 53,545. In 1900 the Republican plurality declined to 28,558, but this was still a long way ahead of the last Republican plurality previous to 1896, that of 2,656 given to Garfield in 1880. The elections in Vermont and Maine show that the ebb from the high water mark of Republicanism in 1896 is not such as to afford any prospect that Connecticut will return to the Democratic complexion it preserved during Cleveland's various candidacies. Cleveland made his own platform in 1892 when he gained the largest plurality given by Connecticut in favor of any candidate since Lincoln. Judge Parker is not the sort of a man who makes his own platform and the independent vote of Connecticut will not agree with him that the St. Louis platform is "admirable."

Dubious Security.

A dispatch from Washington says that there is no likelihood that the Lena would be allowed to repair, provision and coal without a definite agreement as to the immunity of American shipping from attack by that vessel on the return voyage to a Russian port.

What assurance upon that point could be accepted as sufficient? In the early part of the war a Russian cruiser, the Dimitri Donskoi, asked for coal at Port Said, sufficient to last her to Cadiz on her journey back to Russia. Upon this assurance a supply of coal was granted and she proceeded to use it for cruising purposes, hanging about the approaches to the Suez canal, where she overhauled several vessels.

Even if such an assurance were given by the Russian government, what right would we have to accept it? Neutral obligations require that the ports of the neutral power shall not be used as a base of belligerent operations. Merely to exempt American shipping from attack would leave our government culpable as regards operations against other shipping. It would be another Alabama case, leaving the United States subject to the same measure of responsibility as that to which we held Great Britain.

When the matter is fully considered it will be seen that either one of two things will have to be done—the Lena must leave, or be dismantled as a war vessel. The latter course will probably be the one adopted.

Getting a Move on Him.

Although only a few days ago Judge Parker's private secretary gave out a statement in his behalf denying that he intended to go to New York, or that there was any dissatisfaction with the progress of the campaign, it is now reported that he is going and will confer with the Democratic leaders. This is an eminently proper proceeding, as something should be done to dispel the present lethargy which rests upon the Democratic campaign. The state of affairs recalls Roscoe Conkling's saying about "the bright beginning and the bitter end of a halcyon and vociferous proceeding." The calculation was easy to make that with a "safe and sane" candidate, who would draw back to the party the support it had in 1892, but which left it in 1896, there would be a repetition of the Democratic victory of 1892. And this would be doubly sure if the party should at the same time retain the support of the new voters it got by fusion with the Populists in the west. Hence all the platform compromises which the latter, as represented by Bryan, demanded were conceded, while Judge Parker's personality was relied upon as a sufficient inducement for the return of the Gold Democrats. The September elections have smashed that theory and the question that now confronts Judge Parker and his advisers is, what is to be done?

If there is an answer to be given in any way that will influence the result of the campaign it must be contained in Judge Parker's forthcoming letter of acceptance. President Roosevelt has squarely accepted all the issues proclaimed by his opponents. The course of the administration upon every important question has been held up for public inspection. Whether or not what was done meets with approval, no one can say that the president has been lacking in the courage to declare himself plainly and invite judgment. In effect he says: "This is what we did, and this is what we shall do in the future; we challenge you to say whether you would act differently and if so, why?" There is evidently considerable anxiety among the Democratic party leaders as to how Judge Parker will meet this challenge. If he makes a frank, straightforward reply he may play havoc with the platform compromises, while if he avoids the issues voters will conclude that he lacks sincerity and force. The dodger policy is favored by the Post, which says that "there are only a few issues in this campaign that the people really care about, and the Democratic candidate will do wisely to confine himself to them, and to express his views clearly, forcibly and concisely." There are, however, some issues which cannot well be omitted, however restricted a selection may be made, such as the monetary standard, the Philippine policy, the tariff, the trusts, and national disarmament. If Judge Parker will express himself "clearly, forcibly and concisely" upon those issues it will undoubtedly communicate to his personality a force which it does not now possess. Even granting that his nomination is sufficient proof that the Democratic party has recovered its sanity, it has yet to show that it possesses such ideas of doing business that will make it an acceptable trustee of national interests. President Roosevelt has stated clearly, forcibly and concisely the policy of the administration upon every mooted point. Judge Parker should now do likewise.

Campaign Classics.

Some bitterness developed in connection with the New York Republican state convention yesterday, but it is not of a character to be carried into the general campaign. In fact, it is probable that when the convention reassembles today some agreement will have been reached between the contending forces that will restore complete harmony. Governor Odell and the two candidates, Lieut.-Gov. Higgins and former Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff, are all willing to effect some compromise.

The feature of yesterday's meeting was the speech of former State Senator Jacob Sloat Fassett, which contained a series of epigrams peculiarly pertinent to the present situation in the national campaign. "Not being a Democratic candidate for president," said Mr. Fassett, "I shall feel free to discuss public questions." As if offering a reason why a Democratic candidate may not discuss public issues he said: "When you call a man a Democrat you do not describe him." There is so complete a picture of the Democratic embarrassment in these terse sentences that they may be considered campaign classics.

There is such a wide gulf between Bryan Democracy and Cleveland Democracy that Judge Parker may well stand and shiver on the brink. If he stand on one side or if he shall leap to the other he is as irretrievably lost as if he plunges between, and the chasm is too broad to straddle.

Colorado Faces the Issue.

In his speech of acceptance the topic upon which Judge Parker discoursed at greatest length was that of executive interference with the ordinary rights of citizenship, the subject of his animadversion being well understood to be the course taken by Governor Peabody of Colorado in his treatment of the state of anarchy in the Cripple Creek district.

The struggle in Colorado was of an extraordinary character and extraordinary means were resorted to in order to deal with it. Those means have been subjected to a great deal of criticism irrespective of party, but it is evident that Governor Peabody has won for himself the respect and confidence of a great part of the people of Colorado. They do not apologize for or extenuate the acts of the governor, but cordially uphold and approve them. So strong is this sentiment that the Republican state convention yesterday renominated him by acclamation. This presents the issue raised by Governor Peabody's course in the only way in which it can be dealt with fairly. It is thus submitted to the verdict of his own state, where the people are most familiar with the facts of the case. Colorado has now the opportunity to declare whether or not she approves the behavior of Governor Peabody.

As for the constitutional questions involved, they have already been passed upon by the supreme court of the state and the legality of the extraordinary measures adopted by the governor have been affirmed. The matter concerns the exercise of state authority and the people of Colorado are the ones to settle it. It is not a matter which can properly have any place in the national campaign.

Democratic organs are so far recovering from the shock of the Roosevelt letter that they are resuming the campaign of misrepresentation and vague objection, but they are not answering any of the president's specific questions.

Germany denies any agreement with Russia to help the latter in the far eastern war. The denial is prompt and vigorous, as if the German foreign office believed it to be urgently necessary.

Complaint is made by the New York Times that President Roosevelt made scant reference to congress in his letter of acceptance. Well, congress is not a candidate for the presidency.

Judge Parker has consented to go as far from home as New York. He is in no danger of being called to reside in Washington.

No damage was done to corn in Dakota by the frost and south of that the greater part of the corn is past the danger line.

New York Republicans have their differences, but they are not so great as to prevent them from seeing the common enemy.

Yesterday was the third anniversary of President McKinley's death and the country has not ceased to mourn for him.

It is all right to ask Russia and Japan to quit fighting, but it is quite another matter to get them to do it.

Germany denies any agreement to help Russia, but helps a little without an agreement to do so.

Already the size of the loaf is shrinking and wheat continues to go up.

The frost is seeking for the pumpkin.

A Sense of Humor.

The lamas of Tibet posted a proclamation on the walls of Lassa commanding the people "not to hurt the British soldiers as long as they behaved themselves." There is some fun even in a Tibetan lama.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Talked of in Gotham

By FRANK A. PARKER.

(BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Everybody at the national Democratic headquarters seems to have been recently inoculated with "Parker's essence of silence." Once in a while Chairman Taggart will open his mouth long enough to say "I don't know," but that is only after careful deliberation. It causes some wonder that Mr. Taggart should bother with considering matters, since always his answer is "I don't know." New York city is greatly interested in the report that Judge Parker is to be a visitor tomorrow. We would all like to know where he is going to put up, what streets he is likely to pass through, and other little details of the program of the great man. We are naturally hero worshipers, and bow down to our heroes upon every possible occasion, therefore we are looking forward with much eagerness for this opportunity to see Judge Parker—for if a man who would take the Democratic nomination for the presidency this year is not a hero he is a martyr, and that's pretty much the same.

But our curiosity seems likely to doom us to disappointment. We are told officially Judge Parker will arrive tomorrow, but that is all. We don't know whether he is to stop at the Mills hotel, the new St. Regis or at some place that comes midway between the two. We may be allowed to see him if we promise to be good, but even that much is not certain. That we are likely to hear the music of his voice is too much to be hoped for. We are simply told that we know as much about the great event as does Chairman Taggart, and that's not much. After all, he may not come. Nevertheless the city will move on and we can console ourselves for the disappointment by taking a walk among the fair dames in Broadway. They are any amount better to look upon than a mere judge—and they are not afraid to talk, either.

Back to the Beat.

There are a few score of men tramping beats in Greater New York tonight who never expected such ignominy again. They have been simply ornaments to the force and Commissioner McAdoo is such a materialist that he does not believe in ornamentation to such an extent as has been practiced in the police department recently. It seems a shame that a Tammany favorite must earn his salary, but it is so decreed, and all sinecures in the police department have been abolished, at least all of them that Mr. McAdoo could discover with a microscope.

Today there visited headquarters men with strong enough pull to win the tug of war championship of the world, but it profited them not. McAdoo could not see their cases and the plain clothes men of little or no use were compelled to burnish up their brass buttons and prepare to swing a club in true blue-coated copper fashion.

The Busy Hold-Up Man.

Certainly New York can use all the policemen on the payroll. The hold-up man is doing a land office business these cool evenings. He needs the money to lay in his winter's supply of coal and he isn't taking any chances on kind neighbors furnishing his supply. He has taken the good advice we have had drummed into us since we were youngsters, to be "up and doing." Never a day passes but a bit of his history is chronicled. This morning he met a butcher's boy going after a wagonload of the Chicago product and relieved him of a little matter of $117, besides a gold watch and a few other negotiable articles.

Two of the gentry were caught, as it was daylight and a rising sun had disturbed the slumbers of the policemen in the neighborhood, and the boy had a wonderful pair of lungs to be used in shouting for help. The third man escaped, for it would not do for the police to get all the men who "pull a job." It will keep the third man busy for the next few days to accumulate the needed money to employ a lawyer for his pals in distress. They always have a lawyer, and he never works for love of the gentry.

The Manly Art of Kicking.

Anyone who thinks a policeman has a soft berth might inquire of Patrolman George Reed, who travels around in the vicinity of Sixth avenue and Thirty-first street. He got acquainted with savate early this morning, and it didn't cost him a cent. The art was illustrated by a couple of agile Frenchmen, and it was well done. Savate, gentle reader, is the art of kicking a man in the face while he is looking at you. Only a courteous French gentleman ever practices it well, and according to the recommendation Policeman Reed gave the two who illustrated the thing to him this morning they must be experts.

Reed weighs 245 pounds and he is no gazelle. Therefore the Frenchmen had the better of him, and they placed their nimble feet wherever they liked, and that was always on some soft spot of Reed's anatomy. It cost them each $5 and costs in police court this morning, but those who saw the affair declare it was worth the money.

When Coin Rings False.

Park Policeman O'Brien of Hoboken must handle much money. At least he proved this morning that he knows when the coin rings true. He came upon two young fellows jingling quarters upon the asphaltum pavement and he promptly coralled them and gave them a free ride to headquarters. There one of them, James Morton, admitted that the policeman had guessed right the very first time, but refused to tell where he got the coin. The other chap, Robert Howard, declared he got all the money he had from his companion. Twenty-one of the counterfeits were found in the possession of the two men. They will have an opportunity to explain to the United States commissioner later, and possibly will be given some time to reflect over the way of the transgressor who makes money too rapidly.

Mysterious French Girl Leaves Us.

Marseille Lenoir, the young woman who was pursued all over this country for a year by immigration officials and finally caught in Chicago, was sent back to France today on the Majestic. Much mystery has surrounded this case. After the girl arrived in this country she disappeared, and the wheels of the immigration bureau were set in motion to find her, for just what no one would tell. Various stories were set afloat in explanation of so determined and expensive a pursuit. It was said that the girl was the daughter of a rich Paris family, and had been kidnaped. The real story has never been told.

The Quiet Observer

By ERASMUS WILSON.

They are at it again, the school children and the teachers, and if nothing happens out of the ordinary they will keep it up for nine long months.

And what is it all about?

No doubt there are lots of pupils who don't know and don't care, and some teachers who only care to put in full time so they can draw full pay.

Fortunately there are few teachers who care only for the money they get, but don't you think there are too many boys and girls who do not understand what it is all about?

By proper coaching these, or at least the most of them, can be made to understand and when they do they will take more interest in their work.

It is all wrong to think that pupils of average age cannot be made to see and to understand why they are being schooled. Even those whom the truant officer has to chase into school would go of their own accord if they were interested in the work.

If you give a boy to understand that in order to be successful in life he must become educated he will most likely take to it himself.

A little instruction along this line will not be out of place in any school, whether the pupils are large or small.

The great thing is to get boys interested in the work. When this is done they will do the rest, or very nearly.

* * * * *

If there was only some way by which each pupil could be taught according to his capacity, or instructed along the lines on which he is built, the net results would be more satisfactory.

To crowd each and everyone through the same courses is rather too Procrustian.

You know who Procrustes was, or maybe you don't recall the old Greek ruler who insisted on dealing out equal and exact justice to each and every one brought before him.

His idea of a proper man was one about so tall and about so big, neither bigger nor taller than Procrustes himself. And in order to establish uniformity of height among his subjects he had an iron bed constructed which was as long as a man should be in height.

Of those brought before him each was made to lie on this iron bed and if found to be longer than it his legs were sawed off, and if not as long as the bed he was stretched by means of a rope and windlass until he was of standard length.

The same Procrustean idea seems to prevail in many of our schools. No matter how bright and proficient a pupil is he is not allowed to go ahead, but must keep within the limits of the standard provided for his grade. And if he is short in proficiency the teacher is expected to stretch him until he fits the standard.

The old way of allowing pupils to promote themselves from one grade to another by becoming proficient in their studies would seem more just and reasonable than our present methods.

* * * * *

Bookish men and women are not nearly as much in demand as are decent, practical, useful people.

Here follows a copy of an advertisement that shows what kind of boys are wanted by business men and the demand for them is greater than the supply:

WANTED—A boy; no lobster need apply. We need some boys with brains and backbone to work in our store. We need boys who will work in hours and out of hours if necessary. Seekers for easy work need not answer—only head-working, hard-working boys wanted.

Do you imagine that very many boys will answer that advertisement?

The average boy is looking for a soft snap. Nor does the average parent want his boy to take a situation like that; and that in the face of the fact that this same parent has to engage in the hardest sort of work, and at low wages, just because he was too fine to go through a regular course of training.

The fact of the matter is that there are thousands of men engaged in hard and unprofitable labor today who might have been employed at easier and more profitable work had they been properly disciplined.

Only those get easy, profitable jobs whose training has fitted them to do the required work well. Such jobs are not picked up by chance, but fall to those who have been fitted to hold them.

* * * * *

The crying demand of the present day is for decent, earnest, practical men and women, and these can only be secured by rearing, training and educating boys and girls to be decent, earnest and practical.

As the boy and girl of today are so will be the man and woman of tomorrow.

For a long time past the cities have drawn their supplies of practical men and women largely from the country districts and it seems that they will have to continue to do so for some time to come; at least until our school system has been so changed that it will turn out boys and girls who can be developed into the sort of men and women needed.

Thorough drilling in spelling, reading, writing and ciphering up to fractions, including discount and interest, is what is most demanded by the present times.

Fractions, cube and square root, grammar, geography and some other studies are hardly worth while in our common schools. Practical lessons in geography and grammar are all right on the side.

More time should be devoted to teaching and training in manners and conduct than to anything else, for these are the things most in demand by those who employ young men and young women.

Besides, they are more essential to the make-up of good citizens, fathers and mothers, than a knowledge of grammar, algebra and the geography of Europe.

* * * * *

It isn't always the brightest boys and girls in school that achieve the greatest success in life, as you may have reason to know.

The records of our great war show that the most successful commanders came from the middle of the classes in the military and naval schools, where they were graduated. Usually those who get first place get it on account of having good memories rather than because they have the better practical knowledge of the subjects studied.

Following is a bit of verse taken from the New York Sun that hits this off all right:

Within the village school room now
Look with respectful eye;
That wingless imp who went down foot
May teach us how to fly.

That weeper over six times six
May track the unknown suns;
That sprite who fired the spitball now
May train a nation's guns.

Who stuck that pin upon the chair
May shake a tyrant's throne;
The swapper of the jackknife here
Uncounted millions own.

That pothook wrestler, ink begrimed,
May write on Glory's page;
Who stutters "See the Cat" may prove
The mouthpiece of his age.

While on the other side the aisle
Above it all they lord,
Those pigtailed angels will be both
Incentive and reward.
—McLandburgh Wilson.

The Death Roll

David Walker.

David Walker, 66 years old, died yesterday morning at his home in Greensburg. Born in Baldwin township, Allegheny county, he spent the early years of his life on his father's farm. After his marriage he engaged in mercantile business in Altoona. He afterward resided at Latrobe, Pittsburgh and Manor, going to Greensburg 24 years ago. For many years he was a traveling salesman for Arbuckle & Co. of Pittsburgh, and for Armour & Co. of Chicago. His wife died last April. He is survived by the following children: William K. and Mrs. James Walker of Greensburg, and D. Allison Walker, a student in the Western University of Pennsylvania. He also leaves one brother, John Walker of Greensburg, and four sisters, Mrs. James Morrow of Greensburg; Mrs. S. G. Lightcap of Crabtree, and Mrs. Mattie McLaughlin and Mrs. John Jahn of Riverside, Cal. He was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian church.

Charles Taylor.

Charles Taylor, aged 68, died of apoplexy yesterday at the home of his brother-in-law, Robert McClure, in McKeesport, where he was visiting. Mr. Taylor was born in Braddock and served in the civil war. He settled in McKeesport after the war and was a member of Col. Samuel Black post No. 59, Grand Army of the Republic of McKeesport, and of the First Baptist church. He was married twice and his second wife survives. For 18 years he had been a resident of Braddock, where he was in the building contracting business.

Patrick Doran.

Patrick Doran, aged 66, for many years an engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad, died yesterday morning at his home, No. 723 Franklin avenue, Wilkinsburg, of pneumonia. Mr. Doran's first employment with the railroad was under Andrew Carnegie when the latter was superintendent and had headquarters at Union station. He was a member of St. James' Catholic church, Wilkinsburg, and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary H. Williams Doran, and five children. Requiem high mass will be offered over the remains at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

Obituary Notes.

Jehu Dunlevy, one of the best-known men in the Central Monongahela valley, died suddenly at his home at Dunlevy yesterday morning of heart failure superinduced by acute indigestion.

Word has been received in this city of the death of John Carr, a former brakeman in the Herrs island yards, in Kansas City, on Tuesday. His sisters, Mrs. James Duffy and Mrs. James Henry, reside in this city.

Mrs. Josephine Foster Jones, wife of Foster Jones, died at the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Jefferies at Payne place, near Canonsburg, yesterday. She was 28 years old. She is survived by her husband and a three-year-old son.

PERSONALS

Count M. de Mire of Lens, France, arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday and left last night for New York. While in Pittsburgh he visited several engineering departments of local industries. Before leaving the city last night he told a story of being robbed on a Pullman car. He said: "I have been in this country about two months. I have visited the world's fair and it certainly is a grand sight, particularly the electrical display. In coming to Pittsburgh I was asleep in a Pullman car. Just before arriving here the porter wakened me. When I arrived at the Hotel Lincoln I found that I had lost my pocketbook in which was $148. I am positive I lost the money on the train and feel sure I was robbed."

E. E. Smith, representative of the Southern Lumberman, published at Nashville, Tenn., when seen at the Seventh Avenue hotel last evening, said: "The price of lumber next season will be much stiffer than at present. Lumber is dearer than it has been, but the future indicates the prices will be greatly advanced. One reason is this: During the depression all the building industry has suffered; improvements have been delayed and there has been little call for lumber. The election of Roosevelt is apparently a foregone conclusion. This will re-establish confidence, and activity in the building industry will be renewed. During the depression all the retail lumber dealers have allowed their stock to run down, until now there is little lumber on hand. The cotton crop has had its effect on the business. The men formerly employed in felling timber have been employed on the cotton plantations. They received more money cultivating cotton than can be made in the forests. Consequently there has been little lumber cut this summer. Building industry promises to boom next year and with little lumber being cut, the prices will soar high on account of its scarcity."

S. Henrenko, an Indian, living in the Iroquois district near Buffalo, passed through the city last evening on his way home after spending several days touring the southern states. When seen at Union station he said: "The Indian of today differs greatly from the Indians living before the white people took possession of the country. The rising generation of Indians are being educated. Our forefathers were much averse to hard work; they much preferred hunting. Today the Indians are patterning after the American people and are becoming just as thrifty. During my trip south I found everything progressing rapidly. Nearly everybody is at work and the prospects for a continuation of business activity are very bright."

Bruce W. Duer, superintendent of the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio, when seen at the Monongahela house last evening, denied the printed report that he was to be transferred to the Wheeling division, and that William T. Lechlider was to succeed him at the local office. The report, coming from Connellsville, also stated that T. J. Foley, superintendent of the Wheeling division, intended leaving the Baltimore & Ohio to accept a position with the Rock Island.

Neighbors Visiting Pittsburgh.

Residents of nearby towns at the local hotels last night were:

Seventh Avenue—J. G. Wingert, Punxsutawney; J. R. Hinman, Altoona; J. W. Poland, Johnstown; J. E. McCardle, Charleroi.

Duquesne—W. M. Beall, Wellsburg.

Henry—D. Flemming, Punxsutawney; George W. Mitman, Easton; J. K. Jones, Wheeling.

Griswold—C. J. Meyers, Altoona; C. C. Foster, Akron; J. H. Carey, Oil City.

Monongahela House—J. M. Taylor, Orrville; W. R. Allen, New Castle.

Lincoln—S. R. Shallenberger, Latrobe.

Colonial—T. W. Meyers, Connellsville; F. B. Jones, Altoona.

Newell's—T. W. Moye, Greensburg.

Likes Letter and Fairness.

To the Editor of The Gazette:—May a mugwump of the mugwumps express his admiration of the independence and courage shown by your paper—a strongly Republican one—by giving, yesterday, so many extracts from adverse criticisms of the president's letter of acceptance?

As for the letter itself, it strikes me as almost a model of strength, clearness and perhaps of moderation, if we remember the bitterness with which he has been assailed. He has not explained—probably it cannot be explained or justified—the haste with which we interfered to make good the secession of Panama—an interference we certainly should not have tolerated in our own civil war and the gain of the canal does not justify an international wrong, if it be a wrong. He does not answer the objection to our absurd tariff as the main prop of the trusts. And yet, although myself a free trader, I have nearly decided to vote for him. The opposition has shown, especially during the present year, such an amount of idiocy, shiftiness and positive dishonesty. I believe that the president wishes and intends to do right, and he will learn something as time advances. H. D. C.

ROGERS HAD READ LAWSON ARTICLES

Standard Oil Magnate Will Not Stop Publication of "Frenzied Finance."

ARRIVES HOME FROM EUROPE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.

Henry H. Rogers, the Standard Oil magnate, returned from Europe today on the Oceanic. As he was walking down the gangplank with his wife, with whom he had been in France and England on a vacation, Mark Twain, who was at the dock to meet him, extended his hand and the two conversed apart for a few moments.

"I have been abroad for seven weeks," said Mr. Rogers. "In London my attention was called to a series of magazine articles in which, as I understand, I figured largely. I have not read the last number, but shall do so as soon as I have the leisure."

Mr. Rogers stopped for a moment and then, with his voice lowered, said:

"Now, I can't understand that fellow," meaning the author, Thomas W. Lawson, who has financial misunderstandings with Mr. Rogers and other Standard Oil magnates in the floating of Amalgamated Copper.

When told that it was surmised that efforts had been brought to bear to stop the publication of the articles, Mr. Rogers said:

"If any such effort was made I know nothing about it. I don't want to placate Mr. Lawson, nor do I intend to placate him. If the public thinks it is good reading they are welcome to each and every installment." Then Mr. Rogers laughed merrily.

PICKERING'S

FURNITURE & CARPETS
CORNER PENN & TENTH

GRAND FALL OPENING THIS WEEK

Twenty floors devoted to household furnishings! Just try to imagine it!! That's the size of Pickering's great stores now. Compelled to rebuild three times in nine years. Only 12 years ago Pickering's was the smallest house-furnishing store in Pittsburgh. Today it is the largest in the world! Our growth has been as rapid as that of the mushroom, but as sure and safe as that of a rock-ribbed mountain. Today Pickering's store is the largest house-furnishing establishment in the world. Its floor-space is about two and a half acres. Thirty days ago we started to erect three additional stories to our new building and they will be finished in less than a week now.

You ask what makes Pickering's grow? We'll tell you. We please the people! We trust all classes, and will furnish the home of the poorest laborer just as readily as we will that of persons who make more money. The very name Pickering stands for fair and generous dealing. The people come to Pickering's. They bring their friends, for here they are given the most for the money and the easiest way of paying for what they buy. That's why Pickering's have rebuilt three times in nine years. It's been a clear case of "have to." At no time did we rebuild until we were crowded for lack of room, and conditions were growing worse. The people made Pickering's rebuild. Two years ago, when the elegant new store-room was completed on Penn avenue, it was thought that this would do for several years. NOW we have been compelled to add three more stories. Why? The people made us do it!. They demand that we carry more stock. Seventeen great floors were not enough—we had to erect three more; just to accommodate our great and growing trade. Doesn't this fact speak for itself? It shows everyone that Pickering's please the people—that Pickering's treat all classes of people the best—that Pickering's give the most and the best for the money—that Pickering's make payments the easiest—in fact, that Pickering's is the best and most satisfactory place to buy everything needed to furnish a home, complete and beautiful.

GREAT SEND-OFF FOR HOME RULE

Redmond, Donelan, O'Kelly and O'Brien to Address Mass Meeting in Old City Hall.

VICE PRESIDENTS ARE NAMED

All preparations for the big mass meeting in aid of the home rule movement in Ireland, to be held tonight in Old City hall, have been completed, and the committee in charge expects that the great records of former meetings in the same cause will be overtopped and that every seat in the big hall will be taken. The proceeds will be used in the coming parliamentary elections in Ireland.

John E. Redmond, Patrick O'Brien, Capt. A. J. C. Donelan and Conor O'Kelly, all members of parliament, who are to address the meeting, will arrive this morning at 6:30 o'clock. They will be met at the railroad station by a committee of the central council of the Western Pennsylvania societies of the United Irish Land league, which has charge of the meeting.

Mr. Redmond is the leader of the Irish party in the British parliament, the place once occupied by Daniel O'Connell and later by Charles S. Parnell; Capt. Donelan is a Protestant Home Ruler, representing a constituency which is more than 90 per cent Catholic. He and Mr. O'Brien are the "whips" of the party. Mr. O'Kelly is the youngest member of the delegation. He has also been chairman of the county council of Mayo for several years.

Judge J. J. Miller has consented to act as chairman of the meeting. The following are the vice presidents:

GOSSIP OF THE TEACHERS AND SCHOOL YEAR OPENING

How the Summer Vacations Were Spent and What Is Being Done Since Work Began.

The Hancock school building, having been renovated and beautified during the summer, the directors will give a reception to the people of the district and patrons of the school this evening. Diplomas will be presented to the members of last year's class. Supt. Andrews will be present.

According to custom the Thirteenth ward school will not present diplomas to their graduates until some time in December. The occasion is a sort of educational meeting at which it has been the custom to arouse interest in the schools and in education generally. The annual commencement exercises of the St. Clair school will be held Friday evening, September 23, at the Bane school.

The class emblem used on the program of the high school preparatory class of the Homewood sub-district school was designed by a member of the class, Frank Keally. Heretofore the emblem has been chosen by the class from submitted designs, but this year's class decided to have an original emblem, the work of a member of the class. About 18 designs were submitted, the selection to be left to H. Lee Mason of the J. R. Weldin Company. The design decided upon was a very dainty one, carrying out the class colors, red and black.

Miss Margaret Allen of the Thad Stevens school attended the Bible school at Northfield, Mass., this summer. Prof. McCullough and daughter, Miss Edna, of Thad Stevens school, spent the summer at Sparrow Lake, Canada. They had a delightful time fishing. Miss Ida M. Garbart and Miss Emma O. Kiefer of the Thirty-sixth ward school spent their entire vacation at Pt. Chautauqua. Miss Gertrude Reed of the Thirty-sixth ward school had a short trip to Philadelphia, after which she took in the sights at the world's fair.

Over 200 new pupils have been added to the enrollment of the Nineteenth ward schools. The Garfield building is so overcrowded that a number of pupils had to be transferred to the Hiland building.

Miss Sara F. Ellis, a former teacher in the Hiland school, has accepted a position in a private school in the city at a higher salary. Miss MacGonigle of the Fulton school, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

The 50 members of the graduate high school class of the Washington schools will be given diplomas and class pins on September 30 at 2 p. m. in the Fortieth street school building. The honor medals will also be awarded. The Fortieth street building was entirely renovated during the summer, many new furnishings being added. Miss Ella Rhine of the Washington schools was engaged during July in teaching in the summer school in the Fortieth street building.

Miss Justine Confer and Miss Marie E. Smith, chaperoned by Mrs. Louisa M. Smith of Forty-first street, spent a most delightful summer attending the summer assembly at Ebensburg, Pa. About $500 worth of gymnasium apparatus has been ordered placed in the new Colfax school, North Homestead. Miss Alice McFarland of Wilkinsburg will have charge of this new department.

PITTSBURGH AT FRONT.

Her Aerie of Eagles Made Best Showing in National Parade.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 14.—At the meeting of the Grand Aerie of Eagles today Worthy President Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan of New York City in his annual report called attention to the fact that the order now has 850 subordinate aeries, with a total membership of about 150,000. He recommended that the per capita tax on all members be reduced from 30 to 20 cents per annum.

A number of telegrams of good wishes were received, among them one from Seattle, Wash., the mother aerie, where the first annual session of the Grand Aerie was held and which puts in a bid for the tenth annual session in 1908.

The parade of the order was an impressive display, despite the rain. The Pittsburgh Eagles were conceded to have made the best showing.

Burgess Martin Not Afraid.

Burgess D. H. Martin of Bellevue declared yesterday that threatening letters received from persons opposed to the Sabbath Observance association and his part in its activities would not in any way deter him from taking a personal interest in the operations of the organization. Burgess Martin says the writers of these anonymous communications exhibit their characters in their correspondence, and are not of a class that should be given any consideration by law-respecting people.

MATINEE CLUB GIVES DINNER

Amateur Horsemen of Pittsbugh and Allegheny Initiate an Annual Affair.

SEVEN CUPS ARE PRESENTED

With a banquet at the Union club last evening the Matinee club of Pittsburgh and Allegheny entertained the visitors here on account of the Inter-city races, showed their appreciation of the leaders in the movement that has re-established amateur racing in this city and initiated an annual dinner for the horsemen of this city.

The dinner was in charge of James Francis Burke, as chairman of the banquet committee, and after the festivities had assumed full sway the toastmastership was turned over to Mr. Burke by President John G. Bennett of the club. The novelty and success of the dinner will be understood by all who have been at other festivities in which Mr. Burke was a leading spirit. Seven cups were presented to as many individuals, each in its own way peculiarly appropriate. Guests were present not only from Pittsburgh and Allegheny, but from Cleveland, Toledo and New York. All were enthusiastic horsemen and the very menu smacked of the rein. The courses were denominated "The Start," First Quarter." "The Half," "Third Quarter," Home Stretch," "Under the Wire" and "Cooling Out."

The presentation of a handsome silver cup to C. K. G. Billings of Cleveland was the first on the program. Train schedules forced a number of the Cleveland visitors to leave early in the evening. James F. Meagher of the Cleveland club spoke for that organization.

D. L. Gillespie was introduced as a man who lost an arm at Gettysburg and a voice at the last Crucible club banquet. He presented a handsome cup to E. E. Smathers, whom he claimed as more a Pittsburgher than a New Yorker.

A cup was presented to Russell H. Boggs of Allegheny for the alleged reason that the season is about to close and that no one has up to the present time lost his life on the Brunots island track. The next feature was a surprise, the toastmaster announcing that at an enormous expense the best ballet dancers had been imported from Paris and presenting F. L. Chamberlin of Cleveland and Mr. Boggs as the choice. Their performance was greeted with rounds of applause.

A cup was given to "Harry" Devereux of Cleveland, as the best reinsman on earth. It was announced that he is to drive Billings' horse in the coming races.

Cups were awarded to Mr. Haas, to Frank P. Brobst and to David Shaw. Mr. Brobst received as his cup a sprinkling can. Then a cup was given to Joseph Giesenkamp. It was made of earthenware, with a wide mouth and horizontal stripes. Profound applause followed its award. To Samuel Pickering a cup was also awarded.

Then the feature of the presentations developed. J. D. Callery formally moved that John G. Bennett be expelled from the club for the larceny of silver. A committee was ordered to search him and behind his seat was discovered a great chest full of the handsomest of table silver. To Mr. Bennett's great surprise this was tendered him as a testimonial of the club's recognition of his sportsmanship and of his work for the Matinee club's interests.

The meeting closed with a salvo of thanks to Mr. Burke, proposed by President Bennett.

EASTERN OHIO CONFERENCE IN SESSION AT BELLAIRE

Methodists Hear Favorable Reports From Presiding Elders and Others. Bishop Fowler Presides.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BELLAIRE, O., Sept. 14.—The Eastern Ohio conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened its business session this morning. After prayer by Bishop Fowler, communion was administered to the ministers, numbering 360. The Rev. J. G. Smith of Steubenville was re-elected secretary of the conference. The Rev. C. B. Petty, statistical secretary, the Rev. J. D. Secrist of Lisbon, O., conference treasurer, and Presiding Elders Lutz of the Barnesville district, Wallace of the Cambridge district, Smith of Canton, Lane of Cleveland and Manchester of Steubenville, all made reports of their different districts, showing improvement and progress. W. B. Pearson of Cincinnati, of the American Bible society, and B. C. Mains of New York, of the Methodist Episcopal book concern, gave interesting facts regarding their respective publishing houses.

The afternoon was taken up with the different committees in session and a missionary sermon by W. B. Winters. The night session was taken up with a sermon by the Rev. A. B. Riker of Mt. Union college, and an address by the Rev. C. B. S. Mason of Cincinnati in the interest of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational society.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 14.—The Jefferson County Christian Endeavor union has adjourned, after holding its sessions at Irondale. Officers elected were: President, George Swan of Steubenville; vice president, Miss Emma Holiday of Irondale; recording secretary, Miss Lulu Tweed of Steubenville; treasurer, Miss Lillian Feist of Steubenville; junior superintendent, Mrs. A. D. McCullough of Toronto; missionary superintendent, Owen Stephenson of Shane; citizenship department, James Rigley of Irondale.

GREENSBURG, Sept. 14.—A special meeting of the Westmoreland classis of the Pittsburgh synod of the Reformed church has been called to meet at Greensburg on Monday, September 26, for the purpose of putting C. D. Bright in charge of the Derry mission, the receiving of the Rev. C. E. Stoner from the Lancaster classis of the Ohio synod to assume the pastorate of the Ruffsdale charge, and to discuss the troubles existing in the Hungarian mission at Johnstown between the congregation and the pastor, the Rev. Bela Kovacs.

BOY FIRES CHILDREN'S HOME.

Imperiled Lives of the Inmates—He Had Been Angered by Punishment.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Joseph Barnhart, aged 13, an inmate of the Washington county children's home, last night made an attempt to burn the main building. The big structure was just saved from destruction, the lives of 50 or more inmates being imperiled. Barnhart, who was angered by punishment, left his bed at midnight and applied a match to a bed in an adjoining room.

The flames were not discovered until they had destroyed the bed and a portion of the wall. Quick work on the part of officials saved the building. Young Barnhart was questioned and confessed. He will be punished by the authorities.

Must Resume on Garbage.

City Engineer Thomas W. White of McKeesport was notified yesterday by City Solicitor Newlin to have the contractors proceed at once with the erection of the city garbage furnace. Work was stopped three weeks ago. The contractors were under the impression that an injunction had been granted to residents of the Third ward who protested against the erection of the furnace on the water works property. No injunction has been granted.

Confesses to Murder in Virginia.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—James Calahan, who will be hanged on October 4 for the murder of Moss Bay in West Washington and who recently made a confession, today admitted to Officer T. L. Felts of Pulaski, Va., that his correct name was James Haden, and that he murdered a wealthy butcher named John Cary in Pulaski. The Virginia authorities are now after Samuel Sanders, another negro, whom Calahan implicated.

GIRL SUES MAN'S WIDOW FOR HIS FAILURE TO WED

Wants $50,000 Because He Promised to Marry Her, Although He Had Wife.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 14.—A unique legal proceeding was begun here today in the United States circuit court by Miss Amy Wegner of New York, who seeks to recover $50,000 from the estate of the late J. Marshall Funk, who died in Lebanon, Pa., on July 7, 1903.

The suit is directed against his widow and executrix, Mrs. Lizzie Funk of Lebanon, and damages are asked because the deceased failed to keep his promise to marry Miss Wegner. In the bill it is alleged that Miss Wegner and Mr. Funk were engaged to be married and that at different times between November, 1897, and February, 1899, the plaintiff agreed to marry the now deceased. She was at all times willing to carry out her part in the agreement until she learned that he had a wife living from whom he had not been divorced. She says she was defrauded and cheated with deceitful intent and entitled to the sum of $50,000 as damages. An action in assumpsit in the case was filed some time ago.

Verdict as to Woman's Death.

GREENSBURG, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—As a result of Coroner C. A. Wynn's investigation of the death of Mrs. Florence Edith Arbuckles at Jeannette last Sunday the jury decided that she had come to her death by the combined use of drugs and instruments. The verdict does not place the responsibility upon any known person.

Backed by Pittsburgh Capital.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Work on the construction of the Tates Valley Run railroad will be resumed tomorrow. It is to run from Wellsburg to Washington. The road, which is backed by Pittsburgh capital, is being built to open up the coal fields in the northwestern section of Washington county and the adjacent section of West Virginia.

TEMPERANCE WOMEN HEAR GOOD REPORTS

Indorse Efforts of the Sabbath Observance Association and Re-Elect Old Officers.

Interesting reports were received and officers elected at the closing session yesterday of the Allegheny county branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, which met in the Emory Methodist Episcopal church, Highland avenue, East End. Resolutions were adopted indorsing the efforts of the Sabbath Observance association and deprecating the alleged futile efforts of the officials of the two cities to prevent violations of the Sabbath laws. The fact that the advertisement of a large brewery was permitted to appear in the program of the Pittsburgh Exposition was also deplored.

At the morning session all the old officers were re-elected and the majority of the superintendents of branches. The officers are: President, Mrs. H. H. Forrest; vice president-at-large, Mrs. E. W. Gormley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. F. Bryce; recording secretary, Mrs. E. S. McMasters, and treasurer, Mrs. I. S. McConnell. Mrs. A. M. Jones of Wilkinsburg was elected secretary of the Loyal Temperance legion. She holds the honor of being the oldest secretary in point of service in the union, having served for 15 years.

Mrs. J. P. Gettman, who reported for the railroad department, said the failure to hold meetings in the Allegheny shops of the Ft. Wayne railroad was the women's fault. She said they had been given permission to hold meetings, providing only six women were present. She said 15 women attended the last meeting and more than twice the time allowed was taken up.

The flower mission reported that 3,141 bouquets were given to sick and injured, 69 baskets of groceries and fruits and 1,115 visits made. Bellevue gave 1,720 bouquets, Coraopolis 398 bouquets and 890 garments. Mrs. Gormley reported on prison work and declared that the ministers, as a class, take little interest in ex-convicts and but few make any effort to extend to them the hand of fellowship. Mrs. Gormley said the workhouse was never so full as at present. Last year 3,104 were imprisoned there for the first time, and 19 served there their 50th sentence.

DEMOCRATS HAVE TROUBLE SECURING A CANDIDATE

Keenan Faction Holding Aloof and Doty People Shirk Running Against Republican Nominee.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

GREENSBURG, Sept. 14.—The committee appointed by County Chairman John Latta to fill vacancies in the Democratic ticket for the fall election is having trouble in securing a candidate for state senate. Capt. John B. Keenan and his followers have determined to keep aloof from the campaign this fall and there is also a disposition on the part of members of the Doty faction to shirk running against the Republican nominee, Senator Cyrus E. Woods. Several candidates have been offered the place on the ticket, but none are willing to enter the fight.

James K. Clarke of Greensburg was first tendered the nomination. Then it was offered to George W. Deeds of Ligonier. The committee now proposes to persuade B. Frank Vogle of Greensburg to run. Mr. Vogle is editor of the Westmoreland Democrat, which opposed the nomination of Senator John H. Brown of Grapeville, a Republican, for controller on the Democratic ticket.

PITTSBURGH TALENT WAS HEARD AT EXPOSITION

"Pittsburgh Composers' Night" Was Most Successful in History of the Big Point Show.

"Pittsburgh Composers' Night" attracted one of the very largest attendances of the season to the exposition last evening. Mr. Sousa's annual custom, reproducing in one of his programs the works of local musicians, has become widely known, and the occasion is looked forward to with the liveliest interest by thousands. Composers' night this year was an improvement on last year.

As for the public, it filled Music hall until there was not room for another person and applauded loyally and unstintedly every Pittsburgh production. S. Jarvis Adams' march, "The Jollier," opened the first concert, and was followed by the Nevin "Narcissus." The second number was the song, "Pennsylvania," by W. R. Thompson, the banker. The theme of this composition is impressive and it concludes with a fervent burst of patriotic, almost religious passion. J. C. Glomb's "Cavalry Charge" is full of the rattle and fire of all military selections. In K. F. W. Guenther's intermezzo religioso "Amen" passionate feeling prevails; at times it was almost sacred in its tender yearning; again fierce nearly to fanaticism. Sweet undertones played among the more powerful strains and blended the whole composition to one long, subtle prayer, concluding unexpectedly with chimes and a solemn benediction.

Two compositions by J. Vick O'Brien, "Moonlight in Venice," a serenade, and "Caprice," a fantasy, showed masterly feeling and gave pleasure to the audience. There were two rattling marches in the first program, "On the Turf at Saratoga," by W. De Forrest Lappe, and "Plumed Knights," by F. J. St. Clair.

The second concert opened with Ad M. Foerster's "Dedication March," written especially for the dedication of Pittsburgh Carnegie hall, and which is more or less familiar to Pittsburgh. Simeon Bissell's "Concert Overture" in C was one of the features in this part of the program. E. J. Nicewaner's "The Boston Coon" is full of negro rhythm and cadence. But the number which stirred the vast audience to deepest feeling was Nevin's song, "The Rosary," played as a cornet solo by Herbert L. Clarke. Nothing, not even repeated encores, could stem the volume of applause which greeted Mr. Clarke's rendition of this one of Nevin's most beloved compositions.

This afternoon's programs follow:

2 P. M.

Overture, "Bohemian Girl" ........ Balfe
Duet for cornet and trombone, "See the Pale Moon" ........ Campana
Messrs. Clarke and Zimmerman.
Benediction of the Poignards from "Les Huguenots" ........ Meyerbeer

Mr. J. H. B. Moeremons.
Scenes from "Cavalleria Rusticana" ........ Mascagni
Soprano solo, "Mad Scene, Hamlet" ........ Thomas
Miss Estelle Liebling.
Moments Musical ........ Schuber
March, "Jack Tar" ........ Sousa

Wives Put Them to Rout.

SHARON, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Because foreign laborers took the places of Americans digging a sewer at lower wages the wives of the latter, armed with stones, put the foreigners to rout.

AUTUMN GROUNDHOG DAY AT THE WEATHER WORKS

Punxsutawney Will Celebrate Its Semi-Annual Holiday With Feast and Sport in Canoe Township.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, PA., Sept. 14.—The autumn Groundhog day will be celebrated in Punxsutawney tomorrow. The day will be observed with even more ceremony than that of the annual holiday on February 2. The brass band will turn out, the people will wear their Sunday best and flags will be displayed from the public buildings. In the afternoon the Groundhog club, under the auspices of the Punxsutawney Spirit and the Pittsburgh Gazette, will indulge in its annual hunt.

A trip will be made to the fastnesses of Canoe township, and the wily woodchuck will be unearthed from his den under the brown stubble. At the close of the day's sport the club members will gather under the trees and enjoy a dinner of roast groundhog and sweet potatoes. There will be a rare salad and "groundhog punch," with novel ingredients, will be served.

The formal ceremonies will be held in the evening at the rooms of the Punxsutawney Elks. Forecaster Frank Ridgway, who has fled to St. Louis, will be represented in effigy, and this grotesque figure will be the chief source of the evening's amusement. It happens that poor Ridgway is the best person that can be had to typify the national weather bureau—an institution which is spurned by the denizens of Punxsutawney, who prefer to make their own weather, thanks to the assistance of Brer' Groundhog.

There will be toasts to all sorts of weather, and at the appointed time a signal from the master of ceremonies will be the cue for throwing the effigy out of the window into a rain barrel, while the banqueters will drink to "sloppy weather." Many visitors are expected.

Bought Defunct Bank's Assets.

AKRON, O., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—George Bates of the Second National bank today purchased the assets of the defunct Akron Savings Bank Company, of which Senator Dick was a director. The price was $300,000 and the property will be turned over at once by the trustees, William Buchtel and George W. Seiber. The receiver a few weeks ago paid the creditors a dividend of 10 per cent, and it is now thought they will receive an additional 70 per cent. The money to make the deal was furnished by Cleveland bankers, who hope to realize between $70,000 and $80,000 on paper classed by the receiver as worthless or doubtful.

ART JURORS ELECTED.

European Advisory Committees Report Greatest Number of Paintings Yet Offered for Pittsburgh Exhibit.

The election of jurors for the international exhibit of paintings at the Carnegie Art galleries closed yesterday, and the winners were notified last night by telegraph and cable. The public announcement of those who will compose the jury will not be made until all the acceptances are received. Replies are expected before Saturday.

Cables received yesterday by Director Beatty from the advisory committees in London, Paris, Munich and The Hague indicate that the number of works contributed by European painters this year will exceed that of 1901, and that the grand total of canvases will be greater than that of any year in the history of the Carnegie institute. In London 35 were accepted out of 53 submitted. In Paris 79 were accepted out of 121. In Munich eight were accepted, and the Holland painters will be represented by 23 works. This makes a total of 145 works, and in addition there will be small shipments from Sweden, Denmark, Scotland, Norway and Italy. The foreign pictures will be shipped on a vessel sailing next Saturday.

NEGRO WHO CUT ANOTHER SERIOUSLY IS CAPTURED

James Fuqua, aged 37, a negro, wanted for cutting and seriously injuring Henry Jones, also a negro, in a house at 110 Crawford street last Saturday night, was arrested in a saloon in Frankstown avenue last night by Policeman William Jones. Information had been made against Fuqua, charging him with felonious assault and battery. Jones is at the Passavant hospital in a serious condition. One of his wounds required 22 stitches. The men had a quarrel over a woman.

KAUFMANN'S
"THE BIG STORE"

Kaufmann's clothing is distinctive

IT possesses a style-elegance entirely foreign to the ready-for-service clothing to be found anywhere else. It is in a class by itself—and is not bettered in any way by the product of the most expert custom-tailor. Critical and discerning men will find the Kaufmann clothing entirely in harmony with their ideas of character, style and fit.

Then we maintain a stock that comprises a variety of models and fabrics which would appall the average clothier—a stock fully three times as big as the next biggest in Pittsburgh. Our immense clothing business demands it. Where the virtues of best and greatest reign, it must be patent to you that there also must obtain the element of biggest value-giving. It's logical. Comparison will prove that you save fully 25 per cent by buying your clothing at "The Big Store."

500 new stylish trimmed hats worth from $5 to $8

On sale today at 2.95

FROM three of New York's largest manufacturing milliners we secured about 500 trimmed hats, in the latest autumn fashions at concessions that enable our selling them at the exceptionally low price of 2.95. Not a hat in the lot is worth less than $5 and from that their values range up to $8. They come in a multitude of shapes, and decidedly novel and smart trimming effects. They're made of panne velvet, taffeta silks and chenille braids, of every color and combination and are variously trimmed with ribbons, silks, ostrich plumes, coque pompons, imitation paradise feathers, flowers, etc. Never before so early in the season have we had the fortune to make such a splendid millinery offer. The 500 hats should not last the day out. We advise early coming.

The builders have invaded our china department

THE china store is in a badly upset condition. The builders and carpenters are playing havoc with walls, partitions and staircases. All this means more or less confusion and a constant shifting of stock. Now, we'd rather break prices than to have the stocks broken and marred—for lowered prices are a sure means to a decisive removal of the goods from the store to your home—hence these reductions.

Fruit or salad bowls—genuine American cut glass, brilliant chrysanthemum cuttings on heavy blanks—$5 values, now, 3.48

Genuine American cut glass water carafes—rich combination cuttings on strictly new shapes—$5 kind, now 3.48

Genuine American cut glass table tumblers—strawberry, fan and diamond cuttings—worth $3.50 dozen, at only, each, 19c

Cuspidors—neat blue and white cuspidors, also underglazed mottled effects—worth 35c, now 19c

Jardiniers and pedestals—several pleasing shapes, under-glazed and mottled decorations, a variety of styles to select from—regular $3.50 values, now only 1.98

Imported china plates—breakfast, tea and bread and butter sizes, all prettily decorated—regularly 25c, now only 10c

French and American porcelain cups, saucers and plates, underglazed flow blue and white and gold decorations—worth $1.50 dozen, at only, each, 9c

Bronze finish portable gas reading or sewing lamps—complete with incandescent burner, mantle, shades and tubing, ready to adjust and light—regularly $3, now 1.98

Pressed glass fruit or berry sets—of large bowl and 6 saucers to match, in imitation cut patterns—worth 30c set, at 15c

The "Laurel" dinner sets—of 101 pieces, newly shaped and decorated in pretty floral spray effects, in natural colors—$12.50 values, now 8.88

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 14.—Today's game between the Reds and the Pittsburghs was declared off on account of wet grounds. The game will be switched to Pittsburgh for October 6, when the Reds will be en route from Brooklyn to St. Louis. The Pirates left this afternoon for Paducah, Ky., where they play tomorrow.

President Dreyfuss of the Pirates arrived here this morning for the purpose of leading his team to Paducah, where he made his real start in life after coming to this country. The president of the Pirates had no great comment to make on the games of yesterday, except to say that from what his players told him he was led to believe that the Pirates were given rather the worst of it in umpiring.

The calling of today's game was not entirely pleasant to the members of either team. The Pirates were anxious to wipe out the stain of the double defeat yesterday, while the Reds were desirous of adding another victory to their string gained over the Pirates in order to cinch the season's series, which now stands 11 to 10 in favor of the Reds.

Brooklyn Beats Philadelphia.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 14.—Rain made the scheduled double-header between Philadelphia and Brooklyn impossible this afternoon, but the teams met in a single game, which was won by the home team. Score:

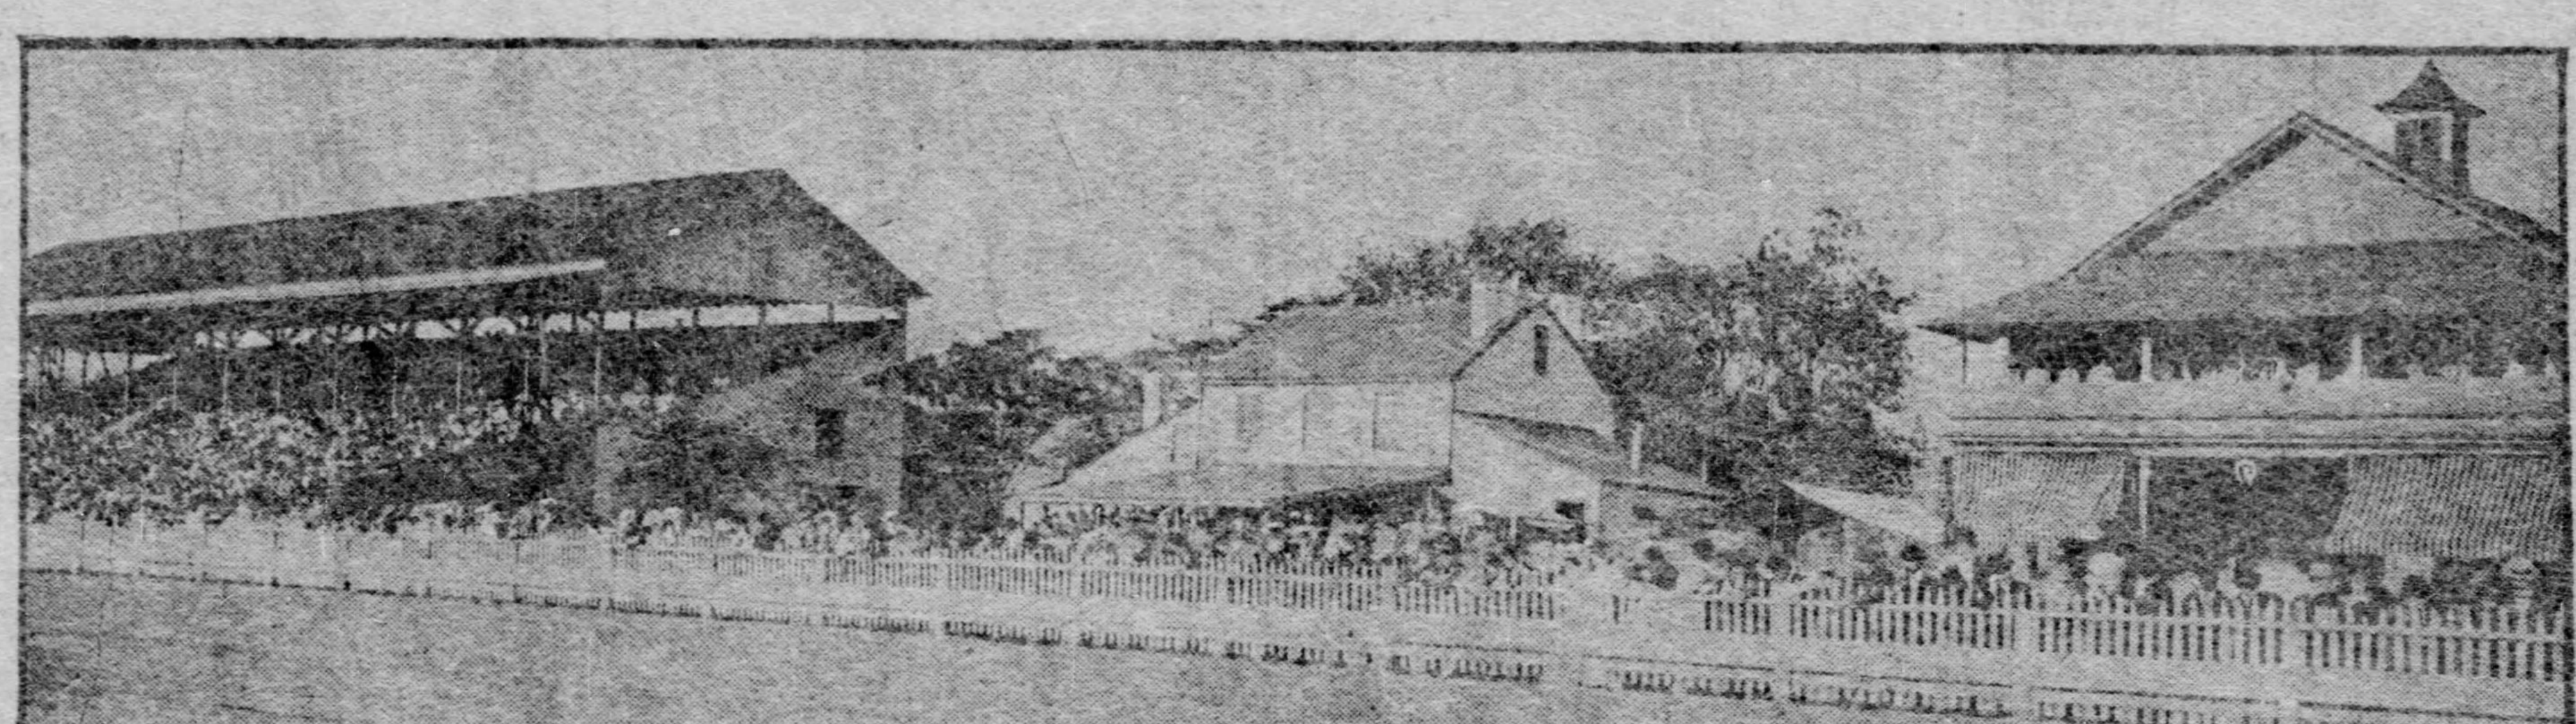
CROWD WATCHING INTERCITY RACES AT BRUNOTS ISLAND



The races at Brunots Island were postponed yesterday owing to rain. After raining Tuesday night the weather cleared up but just before the first field was called out the rain started again. The drivers attempted to go down in the driving rain, but repeated attempts to score did no good and the meet was postponed without a heat being contested. Practically the same horses will start in the races today, but the drivers may be changed. The races will start at 1 o'clock.

COOL WEATHER SUITS PASSERS

First Lineup by W. & J. Candidates—Former Captains to Aid Coaching.

The cool, bracing weather of yesterday was to the liking of Coach Mosse, and he worked the W. U. P. candidates at Exposition park like beavers for two hours. There were 21 candidates out, and Mosse gave each a chance to do something, and they all responded. Much attention was paid to the ends and halves at running back punts. There was a regular line-up. Joe Thompson did not report for practice. Stanznick, a 198-pound guard, was out, but did not put on a suit. He will be in the practice this afternoon, however. The line-up was: McKean, center; Edgar, Wilson and Schwartz, guards; Leidenroth, Miller, Waddel and Brown, tackles; Perry, Gill, Springer and Crea, ends; Rugh, Schmidt and Perry, halves; Mehl and McCormick, fullbacks.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—The W. and J. team had the first formation work this afternoon. The following men played on the first varsity eleven: Center, Sutter; guards, Gibson and Stuart; tackles, Roy and Hawkins; ends, Hart and Hupp; quarter, Neill; halves, Skinner and Wright; fullback, Seip. Head Coach Seaman, John Botsford, Charles Eckles and "Biddy" Aiken, with Clark Schrontz, worked the men. By Friday it is hoped to have a practice game. Theurer, Flowers, Core, Aiken, Hayes, Hall and other former captains will return and each give the team one week's assistance.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—The U. of P. football coaches started an innovation in the training of an eleven today when they selected one of their number, Dr. J. C. McCracken, the famous guard and fullback, to act as the professional trainer. This is the first time that Pennsylvania has had a trainer since Mike Murphy left for Yale in 1900.

FIND WOMAN'S BODY PACKED IN TRUNK

Waters of Lake Erie Cast Up Grewsome Murder Mystery on Cleveland's Shores.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 14.—The body of a young woman was found today crowded into a trunk which was picked up in the water under a coal dock on the lake front. Late this afternoon the body was identified as that of Mrs. Inez Smith of this city.

The woman disappeared on September 6. That she was murdered and her body placed in the trunk and thrown into the river the police say is certain. Some time ago the woman applied for a divorce, alleging that her husband, Samuel Smith, had another wife living whom he married in 1892.

Before her marriage to Samuel Smith the dead woman's name was Inez Hall, and she lived in Zanesville, O. The Smiths had lived in Cleveland about five years, but recently had not been living together.

It is claimed that on September 6 Mrs. Smith went to Lee court, where her husband resided, that a quarrel ensued and that the woman had not since been seen. Neighbors allege that late the same evening two trunks were taken away from the house by an expressman, one of which was delivered at a depot. It is also claimed that Smith has not been seen recently. The woman was white, Smith is said to be colored.

Found Ill in a Freight Car.

JAPANESE LEVY TAXES ON THE MANCHURIANS

Also Pay for Supplies With Promissory Notes on War Fund—Open Music Halls.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

MUKDEN, Sept. 14.—The Japanese are causing a sensation among the natives of Manchuria as they advance by establishing their own system of taxation and administration as though the country were actual Japanese territory. They are paying for supplies with promissory notes on the war fund, a blanket note being given for the payment of each village on the basis of population, leaving the residents to divide pro rata.

Few of these notes have yet been collected in cash, but Japanese officials are collecting a cash tax levied "for war expenses." They have even notified the governor of Mukden to discontinue the salt tax, as it will be readjusted upon a Japanese basis. They have almost doubled the custom dues at Yin-Kow, and have placed such a heavy tax upon the thousands of boats sailing thence as practically to paralyze trade.

Much bushwhacking is going on upon the road south of Mukden, and many Russian soldiers have been killed from the fields of Chinese corn. However, the corn harvest will soon begin, and when the fields are cleared the country will be much more suitable for military operations.

The conduct of the Japanese since their occupation of Liao-Yang indicates a laxity of discipline. One of the first incidents after the occupation was the opening of a number of music halls.

CENTER AVENUE RESIDENCE SOLD

A. E. Masten Pays $30,000 for W. A. Thomas' House Near the Christ M. E. Church.

TEN HOUSES FOR BEN AVON

One of the many tedious deals hanging fire for months was articled for yesterday through the office of W. J. Tener & Co. For Architect W. Arthur Thomas they sold to Alvin E. Masten, a local broker, a new residence on the north side of Center avenue, near Rebecca street, Twentieth ward, for $30,000. The deal was practically on a cash basis and the negotiations started April 20. The lot is 60x160 feet, adjoining the Christ Methodist Episcopal church property on one side and the John G. Holmes residence lot on the other, and across the street from the D. Aiken and M. A. McNulty holdings. Mr. Thomas completed the house last spring, but it has never been occupied. It is a center hall brick residence, containing 14 rooms and three bath rooms and is finished throughout in hard wood. Mr. Masten now lives in Coltart square, but will take possesion of the Center avenue house at once.

Henry Schneideman bought two East End properties yesterday for $22,500. From H. Walton Mitchell he secured 158x200 feet on the north side of Darlington road, near Murray avenue, Twenty-second ward, for $15,000. The lot is one of the best residence sites in that neighborhood. The other purchase was made from William H. Cameron, the property being an improved lot, 33x93 feet, on the south side of race street, near Collier street, Twenty-first ward, for which $7,500 was paid.

F. F. Nicola yesterday secured title to the former residence of Col. Lewis T. Brown on the east side of Morewood avenue, near Castleman street, Twentieth ward, for $50,000. The house is a stone residence of 12 rooms on a lot 86x180 feet. Recently Col. Brown bought the Charles Schwan residence in North Negley avenue.

J. Palmer O'Neil, who now has five houses under way on his Ben Avon allotment is preparing to let the contracts for 10 more houses to be built in Breading and Perrysville avenues, Ben Avon, on lots 50x150 feet. Seven of the houses will be reception hall brick dwellings of 10 rooms, costing $7,000 each, and the remainder frame dwellings costing $6,000 each. Both streets are 40 feet wide and are protected by rigid building restrictions. When these houses are finished there will not be a vacant lot below Church avenue on either Breading or Forrest avenues. John Dixon Hiland of the Pittsburgh Drygoods Company is also starting a $6,000 residence in Forrest avenue, opposite the W. B. Flaccus residence. Another residence to cost $10,000 is being built on the Renwick lot at Breading avenue and Brighton road.

Since last spring at least 25 houses have been started in Ben Avon. This building boom has been due chiefly to the prospect of a street railway in the borough next year.

Leases in Phipps' Power Block.

Harry B. Naylor has leased for Henry Phipps to the Eichbaum Printing and Lithographing Company the tenth or top floor of the new power building, Cecil way, between Penn avenue and Duquesne way, for five years. The company was formerly located at Second avenue and Cherry alley. The property there was lately sold to the Mortgage Banking Company. Two other printing concerns are now located in the power building, the Bessemer Printing Company and Reed & Whiting. The Phipps interests will occupy the entire first three floors and the remainder will be rented for light manufacturing.

Work is progressing rapidly on the three-story brick building which Henry Phipps is erecting on the east side of Sixth street, opposite the Bessemer building. The entrance to the Hyde & Behman theater, which is 25x130 feet, will be completed by October 15. The plasterers are now working on the theater and it is expected that it will be finished inside of a month. As planned there will be five store rooms, each 25x130 feet, in Sixth street. One of these will be along Duquesne way and the other four between the theater entrance and the Alvin theater. On the upper floor of the building there will be a public hall, 60x120 feet, and the entire second floor will be arranged for small stores and offices.

Architect Charles Bickel has awarded three more contracts for the big group of warehouses to be built by the Pittsburgh Terminal Warehouse and Transfer Company on the South Side. The Carbondale Machine Company got the contract for the cold storage machinery, consisting of two refrigerating machines of 100 tons daily capacity and several miles of piping. Babcock & Wilcox will install six boilers with a total capacity of 1,500 horse power. The Westinghouse Electric and Machine Company got the contract for three engines of a total of 1,000 horse power, three generators of the same capacity, six stokers for feeding the boilers and a mammoth improved switchboard. Exhaust steam will be used to supply the plant.

Dalzell place: J. Charles Sauder sold to Eliza Flanagan an improved lot, 34x138 feet, in the north side of Dalzell place, Twenty-second ward, for $9,500.

Meyran avenue: Herman Linde sold to Lottie Keller an improved lot, 22x142 feet, in the west side of Meyran avenue, extending through to Ward street, Fourteenth ward, for $6,400.

Meyran avenue: Mary Adams sold to Patrick Lee an improved lot, 22x100 feet, in the east side of Meyran avenue, Fourteenth ward, for $4,500.

Cresson street: Jeremiah Barnhart sold to James S. Hill an improved lot, 25x75 feet, in the east side of Cresson street, near Kenova street, Thirty-second ward, for $3,000.

Scattering Realty Sales.

Gladstone street: The Marion Building and Loan association sold to John Dignan an improved lot, 20x100 feet, at the southeast corner of Gladstone street and Girard avenue, Twenty-third ward, for $1,600.

Westmoreland street: John Zeman sold to Patrick Finney an improved lot, 25x145 feet, in the northwest side of Westmoreland street, Twenty-first ward, for $1,525.

Clarissa street: Daniel Ziegler sold to James E. Mercer an improved lot, 24x100 feet, in the south side of Clarissa street, near Camp street, Thirteenth ward, for $2,200.

Lillian street: Sophia Krozpasky sold to Andreas Roth an improved lot, 22.5x92 feet, in Lillian street, Thirty-first ward, for $1,650.

Building permits were granted in Pittsburgh yesterday to J. H. Elder, for four brick veneered dwellings, Murray Hill avenue, Twenty-second ward, to cost $20,000; Markell & Skelly, three-story brick apartment house, Bennett and Collier streets, Twenty-first ward, to cost $15,000; Gus Freinstein, brick dwelling, Rodman street, Nineteenth ward, to cost $5,000; William Miller & Sons, shed, rear of Carnegie library, Forbes street, Fourteenth ward, to cost $2,000; H. W. Stimel, frame dwelling, Singer avenue, Thirty-seventh ward, to cost $2,000, and James McHugh, brick extension to dwelling at Rodman street and Collins avenue, Nineteenth ward, to cost $1,800.

Fifth avenue: The Aronson Realty Company delivered the deed for the property at 2008 Fifth avenue, near Jumonville street, Fourteenth ward, for Louis J. Szeleznick, formerly with the Pittsburgh Jewelry Company, but now of New York City, for $8,500. The lot is 22x120 feet deep to Ann street, improved with a store room and dwelling. August J. Bonnett, the purchaser, buys as an investment.

Firemen Hurt on Their Way to a Fire.

Capt. John Schaub and Driver Robert Reynolds of engine company No. 4 were injured while answering an alarm for fire in the Imperial laundry, Colwell and Vine streets, about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The hose cart collided with an eastbound car in Fifth avenue, near Dinwiddie street, and the two men were hurled from the wagon. Both were bruised badly, but not sufficiently to put them out of service. The blaze did little damage.

SOCIETY

Nine hundred Pennsylvania physicians and their wives are expected in the city to attend the convention of the State Medical society on September 27, 28 and 29. Dr. Samuel Ayres of Morewood avenue is chairman of the general entertainment committee and Dr. Elizabeth L. Martin heads the list of those on the ladies' sub-committee. This latter body includes over 50 of the wives of prominent county physicians and will have in charge entertainments for the wives of the visiting physicians.

The ladies' sub-committee held its first meeting at the Hotel Schenley yesterday morning and made arrangements for several social affairs to be given on the three days of the convention. The round of social events will be opened by a brilliant reception and dance at the Schenley on the evening of the 27th.

On Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the members of the sub-committee and their guests will drive through Schenley and Highland parks, the tour to be concluded at the Country club, where a reception will be held, the wives of the incoming state president, elected earlier in the convention, and the outgoing president, Dr. Ulrich, receiving.

The entertainment for the evening has not been fully decided upon, but will be either a trip to the exposition or to one of the theaters. The convention closes on Thursday afternoon, and in the morning the social end will be concluded with a trolley ride along the Perrysville route.

Elderkin-Hockensmith.

Miss Mabel Cornelia Elderkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Elderkin of South Fairmount avenue, and Wilbur Darwin Hockensmith were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Arthur D. Mink, pastor of the Emory Methodist Episcopal church, solemnized the marriage at 7 o'clock. Miss Mary Elderkin was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Milly Hockensmith and Miss Edith McMillen were bridesmaids. The best man was Howard Ward, and the party was completed by the ushers, J. Harrison Hugus and Richard Jennings Sloan.

White satin and point lace formed a very effective bridal gown, orange blossoms fastening the veil and white roses and lilies of the valley composing the bouquet. The bride's only ornament was a diamond and pearl pin, the gift of the bridegroom. Miss Mary Elderkin was gowned in pink tulle and carried a cluster of maidenhair fern and pink roses. Pink roses were carried by the two bridesmaids, each of whom wore white tulle.

The house was prettily decorated with quantities of ferns and roses, pink and green being the dominant colors. The wedding supper was served in the billiard room on the third floor following the reception. Mrs. Elderkin, in a cream net and lace, and Mrs. Hockensmith, mother of the bridegroom, in black lace, received with the bridal couple. After November 1 Mr. and Mrs. Hockensmith will be at home in Irwin, Pa.

Powelson-Armstrong.

St. John's Protestant Episcopal church in Lawrenceville was the scene of an interesting wedding last evening, when Miss Sarah Agnes Powelson, daughter of Mrs. John D. Powelson, became the wife of John Allen Armstrong. The ceremony was performed at 6:30 o'clock by the rector of the church, the Rev. Thomas J. Danner, and was followed by a reception for the immediate relatives at Mrs. Powelson's home in Sherman avenue, Lawrenceville. J. M. Miller, a brother-in-law of the bride, gave her away, and she was attended by Mrs. Hiller, who acted as matron of honor, and by Miss Maude Crozier, Miss Lillian Metcalf, Miss Olive Morris and Miss Grace Linderman, as bridesmaids. George Danner was the best man and the ushers were Samuel Ross of New York, Dr. E. Tabor Tripp, Albert Royston and Richard Briney.

The bride was gowned in white net and lace with a tulle veil, and her bouquet was of white roses. The maids wore white over pink and carried pink asters, and Mrs. Heller was in white and carried a bouquet of white asters. Pink and white were used to decorate both the church and the house, roses and carnations adorning the chandeliers, and with asparagus fern decorating the mantels at the home, while in the church the chancel was filled with palms against which the pink flowers stood out. After the wedding supper Mr. Armstrong and his bride began their wedding journey, at the conclusion of which they will be at home in Sherman avenue, receiving their friends on Tuesdays in November.

Robertson-Burke.

Pink and white were the prevailing colors at the wedding of Miss Marguerite Beatrix Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Robertson, and John Jay Burke, which took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Irving place, Shadyside. The Rev. Father Miles Sweeney performed the ceremony. The bridal party included Mrs. J. H. W. Myers, as matron of honor; Miss Elsa Straub and Miss Mabel Wright, as bridesmaids; little Miss Laura Myers and Miss Josephine Burke, flower girls; James Francis Burke, best man, and Allen K. Robertson and Harry Bock, ushers.

The bridal gown was an exquisite creation of cream-colored crepe meteor and rose point lace, made en princesse with shirring in girdle effect at the waist. The lace edged the yoke and the elbow sleeves and the tulle veil was fastened with lilies of the valley, these flowers showering the bouquet of white roses. The matron of honor was gowned in white crepe and carried pink asters, and the bridesmaids, in pink mousseline, carried white asters. The flower girls wore dainty frocks of white with shower sashes of tulle ribbon and rosebuds and carried baskets of pink and white sweet peas.

The bridal table was placed in the library on the second floor, and in addition to the members of the party it seated Mrs. James Francis Burke, Mrs. Anna T. Burke, the mother of the bridegroom; Father Sweeney, J. H. W. Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson. Pink and white asters combined with ferns and palms were used to decorate the house. After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Burke will be at home in Maryland avenue, East End.

MISS LEONA CAMPBELL

of Greensburg, who wedded James Boyd of Turtle Creek yesterday.

Campbell-Boyd.

GREENSBURG, PA., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Miss Leona Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra G. Campbell, and James Kelso Boyd of Turtle Creek were married in the United Brethern church tonight. The ring ceremony was used, the officiating minister being the Rev. Dr. W. R. Funk of Dayton, O., assisted by the Rev. Eli Young of Turtle Creek and the Rev. J. A. Groves of Greensburg. The bride was given away by her father. Her attendants were Mrs. Charles W. Keck of Greensburg, as matron of honor, and Miss Nannie Campbell, sister of the bride, and Miss Martha Boyd, a sister of the groom, as maids. The best man was David Boyd, a brother of the groom. The flower girls were Miss Sara Gross of Greensburg and Miss Margaret Lewis of Braddock. The ring bearer was Master David Lewis of Braddock, and the ushers were Murray Campbell, a brother of the bride, Sidney Dillon of Braddock and Frank Slick and Thomas Larimer of Turtle Creek. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left on a late train for a wedding trip in the west. Mrs. Boyd is prominent socially in Greensburg. Mr. Boyd is a draughtsman in the Edgar Thomson steel works at Braddock.

Knox-Tindle Wedding Plans.

Miss Rebekah Page Knox, daughter of Senator and Mrs. P. C. Knox, is at present in New York, having gone there from Valley Forge to meet Miss Althea Mohler and her sister, Miss Margaret Caldwell Mohler, who are expected home from Europe today. Miss Althea Mohler is to be the bride's only attendant at the wedding of Miss Knox and James R. Tindle of this city on October 15. Charles Wood Tindle will be his brother's best man, and the party will be completed by the two ushers, Reed Knox and Hugh Knox, brothers of the bride-elect. The ceremony will be conducted at high noon at "Lesmore," the Knox home in Valley Forge.

Mrs. Long, a sister of Miss Mohler, has taken a house at Greenwich, Mass., for a time and it is possible that the wedding of Miss Margaret Mohler and Dr. Edward Allen Pease of Boston, whose engagement was announced a few weeks ago, will take place there during the first week of November.

Marshall-Brunner.

The wedding of Miss Mabel M. Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Marshall, and William F. Brunner, both of Allegheny, took place last evening. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents in Irwin avenue at 5 o'clock, the Rev. R. B. Miller, pastor of the Beaver United Presbyterian church, officiating. The bride had as her maid Miss Katharine B. Hastings, and the groomsman was Ralph Adams. The guests included only a few intimate friends of the young people, beside members of the two families. Both the young people are well known, Mr. Brunner being employed in the passenger department of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie road. Mr. and Mrs. Brunner have left for an extended western trip, including Colorado and the World's fair, and will be at home after October 1 in Taggart street, Allegheny.

County Association to Meet.

The Women's Union Missionary Association of Allegheny County will meet this afternoon and evening in the Fourth Avenue Baptist church, this city. The afternoon program, at 2:30 o'clock, is as follows: Praise service, Mrs. C. L. Thurgood; business, "Greetings from the President," Mrs. M. F. Hutchins; "Looking Backward," Miss Emma Fowler; "Looking Forward," Mrs. Ellen M. Watson; open parliament, united study course, Mrs. Mary Clokey Porter, presiding; (a) "The Need of Mission Study," Mrs. J. W. Sproull; (b) "The Aim of Mission Study," Mrs. William Van Kirk; (c) "Organization of Mission Classes," Mrs. S. S. Gilson; (d) "The Leader," Mrs. M. C. Porter; (e) Japanese picture study, Mrs. R. H. Hay; reception of missionaries and introduction of former presidents. The evening program includes devotional service, Mrs. John Bell; address, Mrs. H. C. Campbell; reports of committees and parting words by Mrs. W. G. Partridge.

Two Quiet Weddings Yesterday.

Miss Emma Kamm and Frank W. Armstrong of Allegheny were quietly married last evening at the residence of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Thomas Park, pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian church, Allegheny. The bride and bridegroom will be at home in Irwin avenue, Allegheny, after October 15.

The Rev. Harry G. Teagarden of Punxsutawney officiated yesterday at the marriage of Miss Alwilda Shoemaker of New Bethlehem, Pa., and William Sullivan of Brownsville, which took place at the Hotel Anderson in this city. Miss Katherine Duff and Samuel Fox of Pittsburgh were the only attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will leave for St. Louis this morning.

Johnson-Helt.

Miss Anna Katherine Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark Johnson of Lowrie avenue, Troy Hill, and Edward Howard Helt, also of Allegheny, will wed tonight. The ceremony will be performed at 7 o'clock by the Rev. William H. Nicholas, pastor of Grace Lutheran church. The guests will include only the immediate relatives of the young couple. Miss Johnson will have one bridesmaid, Miss Laura A. Meess, and William Johnson, the bride's brother, will serve as best man. The bridal gown is of lace and the bride will carry asters. Palms and asters will form the decorations throughout the house. A reception and supper will follow, after which Mr. Helt and his bride will leave for a trip through the west. They will be at home in East Stockton avenue, Allegheny, after October 15.

Cornwall-Barmes.

MONESSEN, PA., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—A pretty home wedding was solemnized here today at 2 o'clock when Miss Alice Cornwall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cornwall, became the bride of Martin H. Barmes. The Rev. J. V. Wright of the First Methodist Episcopal church officiated, the ring ceremony being used. Only relatives and immediate friends attended. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Barmes left for a three weeks' tour of the west, including the St. Louis fair. The bride is a sister of H. L. Cornwall, a former organist of the St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal church of Pittsburgh. After October 10 Mr. and Mrs. Barmes will be at home to friends at 512 McKee place, Oakland, Pittsburgh.

Maguire-Bennett.

A quiet wedding yesterday morning was that of Miss Nelle Cornelia Maguire and Robert L. Bennett, which took place in the Roman Catholic church of the Sacred Heart, the Rev. Father Francis Keane officiating. Miss Lottie Maguire was her sister's maid of honor and William Rathburn was the best man. The church ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Maguire, in Ellsworth avenue. After October 1 Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will be at home in Boquet street, Oakland.

Williams-Kekilty.

Miss Stella Horner Williams of West Etna and William H. Kekilty of Wilkinsburg were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Williams, at Mt. Royal cemetery, where Mr. Williams is superintendent. The Rev. Joseph Horner of Allegheny was the officiating clergyman. He was also the officiant at the wedding of the bride's parents. The bridesmaid was Miss Agnes Mitchell of Allegheny and the best man was Alexander Kekilty, a brother of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Kekilty will live in Wilkinsburg.

Social Events in Sewickley.

Mrs. John White entertained yesterday afternoon at her home in Nevin avenue, Sewickley, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock. The affair was a fancy-work party to meet Mrs. J. D. Roberts and Miss Clara Grundy, who are guests in the valley. Mrs. White will entertain with another similar affair this afternoon in honor of the same guests.

Mrs. Conrad F. Stolzenbach will entertain with a luncheon at her home in Thorn street, Sewickley, this afternoon.

A Quiet Home Wedding.

Miss Anna Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hamilton, has chosen Friday, October 21, as the date for her wedding to C. Willard Gibbs of Sewickley. The wedding will be very quietly conducted at the home of the bride's parents in McPherson boulevard, East End, in the evening, and the Rev. W. J. Russell, pastor of the East End Christian church, will officiate. There will be no attendants. After their wedding trip Mr. Gibbs and his bride will be at home in Bellevue.

Lakewood Colony Breaking Up.

The little colony composed of Pittsburgh people who have been spending the summer at Lakewood, N. Y., is slowly breaking up. Mr. and Mrs. Murry Verner came home last evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. Linford Smith are expected home next week, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Kuhn have been in the city almost a week and Mr. and Mrs. William Sage Dalzell preceded them by a few days.

Notes of Society.

The Wimodausis club gave the second of its outings at Kennywood park yesterday afternoon and evening.

Miss Sarah Patterson and Miss Mary Patterson of Beech avenue, Allegheny, will entertain informally this evening at their home.

Miss Tracy Gallagher of Duquesne Heights, who has recently returned from Conneaut, will entertain a number of friends at her home this evening.

Girls Slept in Old Glass House.

Philomena Sibert, aged 18, was committed to the Home of the Good Shepherd on Troy Hill, Allegheny, and Katie Rohds, aged 17, was held for the juvenile court yesterday. The girls were arrested on a charge of vagrancy, it being alleged that they have been sleeping in an old glass factory in South Twenty-first street for several weeks. The Sibert girl is said to have no home; the Rohds girl's parents live at 1819 Jane street, South Side.

WHAT'S THE USE

To Keep a "Coffee Complexion."

A lady says: "Postum has helped my complexion so much that my friends say I am growing young again. My complexion used to be coffee colored, muddy and yellow, but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl. I was induced to try Postum by a friend who had suffered just as I had suffered from terrible indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells.

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would not last. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place.

"I had drank coffee all my life. I suspected that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

STEEL AND PENNSYLVANIA LEAD IN UPWARD MOVEMENT

New York Stock Exchange Makes Noteworthy Advances, Shaking Off Fear of Crop Damages. Local Stocks Are Dull.

Just for a moment the rise in price of stocks was delayed on the New York exchange yesterday on account of the granger influence. Then the bull tendency in the market came out strongly and made the day the most notable of the present rise. United States Steel preferred and Pennsylvania railroad made new high marks for the year.

Offerings to take profits which were met on the way up seemed to be lighter than before, and the bears made no apparent attempt to contest the advance. In fact, they were assisting it by their efforts to cover short contracts and were too much intimidated by the persistent strength of the market to attempt renewed opposition. Thus, freed from obstacles, the upward course of prices was practically continuous except for occasional intervals, when the buying movement seemed to spend its force. At such times the activity simply died out and the price movement came to a standstill or suffered trivial reactions, instead of the feverish fluctuations of the occasional halts in the previous advances, due to the rush to take profits by nervous speculators.

Yesterday's movement also lacked the constant irregularity which has been caused by the heavy profit-taking in one part of the list, while rapid advances were forced in other stocks so characteristic of the market for many days. The movement was fairly comprehensive, although uneven. The drop in the grain markets was a sensible relief to sentiment, and the news from the corn belt showed that the frost area did not extend nearly as far as was feared on the day before. Urgent buying orders for the grangers from western sources made it evident that the preceding day's selling from that quarter had been overdone. The forecasts of an extension of the frost area to the eastward and southward for last night were ignored.

News of a positive kind to account for the day's strength was not forthcoming beyond expressions of general confidence in the outlook. The large number of representative bankers from all sections now in the city to attend the American Bankers' convention were believed to be responsible for a growth in this sentiment by reason of personal expressions and contact.

The day's principal show of strength was in stocks most closely associated with iron and steel trade. United States Steel preferred itself took the leadership of the movement, following the further advance in Pennsylvania and its group of controlled railroads. This whole group is largely affected by the condition in the iron trade, which also has a large influence on the coal trade.

Erie was also prominent in the movement. The news of the two trades, so far as they were published in Wall street, was decidedly conservative and offered nothing to explain the strength.

The reduction of cash reserves of the banks was continued both by sub-treasury requirements and by withdrawals for shipment to the interior. Rates were perceptibly higher, both for call and time loans, and mercantile loans are also reported firmer. Sterling exchange was lower and a fair supply of cotton bills was reported in that market. There was urgent covering by belated shorts in the grangers in the late market. The closing was active and strong throughout.

Bonds were strong. Total sales, par value, $5,150,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

The day on the Pittsburgh stock exchange was slow. The changes were divided between advances and losses, all fractional, except in the case of Colonial Trust Company, which, on the sale of one share, showed an advance of $5, bringing $340.

On the sale of 200 shares of Brewing common the price was the same as at the last sale, 24¾. There were 220 shares of Crucible common traded, with a net decline of ⅛. The preferred closed at the old price, after having sold as low as 40⅛. Luster Mining lost ⅛. Manufacturers Light and Heat advanced ¼, selling as high as 35½. Pittsburgh Coal preferred was off ¼, selling as low as 60, that sale being of a lot less than 10 shares. River Coal preferred was strong at 21⅞, an advance of ⅛. Sewer Pipe was unchanged at 22. Steel preferred advanced 2¼, in sympathy with the New York market, the highest local price being 67. Pittsburgh Coal scrip dividend went off ½ point, selling at 103.

PITTSBURGH STOCKS.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Large buying of United States Steel preferred on the New York stock exchange in the past week has been credited to a couple of Pittsburgh houses who are said to have been short of the stock and had to cover. The rumor to this effect has been so general ever since the movement began that it is receiving considerable credit. Such a rumor adds undoubted strength to the situation, as its plainest indication is that these two houses, which are among the closest to the management of the corporation, do not believe that there is a likelihood of the market going low enough to protect them. That there has been a marked change made in the steel business by the policy of President Corey and his associates in placing prices of the various lines on an actual market basis is undoubtedly true. The number of inquiries being made at present by prospective buyers exceeds anything in the year to date. They are feeling around to find whether the true bottom has been reached. Buying will follow, since much business has already been delayed too long on account of the uncertainty attending all the price agreements for several months past.

The Pittsburgh market, with 2,173 shares sold, lagged far behind the New York market on which there were sales of 1,105,100 shares yesterday. The day did not equal either Monday or Tuesday interest. Crucible Steel common showed another loss of ⅛ point yesterday, the preferred closing unchanged. Harbison-Walker Refractories common was off ½, at 6.

The sale of $2,000 Huntington (W. Va.) water bonds at 99 and interest was reported on the exchange.

One of the explanations given for the Erie situation is that with the dissolution of the voting trust the control of the trunk line has passed from the old crowd. For several months past that crowd is said to have been trying to secure again the control by purchases in the market.

A rumor with a probable basis of truth is that Pennsylvania and New York Central have made another offer for Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh, and again without success. The Iselins are said to ask for this road the equivalent of $175 a share for all stock, a price that no one is willing to pay at the present time.

At the meeting of the Mexican congress on September 16 President Diaz will recommend that the value of the Mexican dollar be fixed at 50 cents gold. The importance of this will be realized from the fact that the railroads in Mexico have been making earnings in silver, with a fluctuating value of from 40 to 45 cents for the dollar, and paying out in gold. In the case of Mexican Central, to take an instance, each cent on the dollar means a difference of upward of $100,000 a month. It is estimated that with a fixed rate of 50 cents on the dollar its net earnings will be increased by something like $7,000,000 a year.

The Gates interest is said to be among the heaviest buyers of United States Steel preferred.

The last bank statement shows 22 New York banks with reserve exceeding 26 per cent of deposits, 14 banks with reserve from 25 to 26 per cent of deposits, and 17 banks with less than 25 per cent reserve. The total surplus of all the banks was $38,438,250, and the deficit of the 17 banks below the reserve required was $1,351,125. The surplus of the other banks was therefore $39,789,375. There has been a gradual increase this year in the number of banks with less than 25 per cent reserve from 11 on August 20, when the surplus was at the maximum, to 17 on September 10. The reserve can be restored at this time of the year only by calling loans and thus reducing deposits, and the loans that are called must either be liquidated or shifted to some bank that has a surplus.

"We believe that about 85 per cent of the corn along our lines is out of danger from early frosts," said an officer of the Missouri Pacific. "If this proves true, with the big yield of cotton we are now assured of it is safe to say the road has a very good year's business ahead of it. Everything already looks better and officials of the road are encouraged."

The American Locomotive Company has received an order for 20 locomotives from one of the leading railroads. This is one of the largest orders recently placed, and it is regarded as indicating some improvement in the locomotive business.

FEATURES OF THE DAY

IN PITTSBURGH.

Stocks on the local exchange were dull, but strong; Pittsburgh market showing but little sympathy with New York movement.

Total sales were 2,173 shares, $12,000 bonds and $61.25 scrip dividend.

Highest mark of year, 67, was made by United States Steel preferred.

Crucible Steel common sold off fractionally.

Clearing house exchanges for the day were $6,280,327.64.

Colonial Trust, on sale of one share, advanced $5.

IN WALL STREET.

New high marks for the year are made by United States Steel preferred and Pennsylvania.

Buoyant market throughout the day with advances all along the line.

Fears from crop damage are shaken off, the night not having produced forecasted corn-killing frost.

Movement is a regular one and free from large profit taking.

Sales exceed 1,000,000 shares of stock.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

From the furnaces of the copper plants to the eastern refineries there was forwarded during the week 906,753 pounds of copper bullion, containing gold and silver, the record exceeding all previous ores and yet but a unit in that for which the copper producer is equipping. It was the unprecedented performance at the Bingham Con. smelter to which the furnaces collectively are indebted for the exhibit. The management of that plant, which has been preparing its battery for several weeks, forging ahead to second place, while the installation of a fifth furnace will enable it, no doubt, to crowd the Utah Con., which has long maintained the lead.

George L. Hedges, manager of several properties in Buffalo Hump, Ida., reports that he has purchased the Lone Star group in the Four Mile country, 20 miles north of the Hump. The Lone Star has a big porphyry dyke 300 feet wide, which Mr. Hedges says will average $6 to the ton in free values. It can be worked by the quarry system, and it is the plan of Mr. Hedges to keep a crew at work all winter. Supplies are now being taken to the mine.

E. W. Griffiths, who has, with Capt. James Black, been examining the Dipper group of copper and silver-bearing mines between the Cottonwoods in behalf of eastern investors, came in from the diggings last night to await the story from the furnaces to which their samples have been referred. Mr. Griffiths reports some ore at the surface running well up in copper and silver, with not a little gold, and the condition underground quite encouraging.

A good strike was made this week north of Caliente on the Black Hawk claim in a three-foot ledge opened up by a tunnel run 85 feet across the contact. The character of the ore is sand carbonates, the first find of this class reported in Southern Nevada, and assay returns show the values to be 230 ounces silver and 38 per cent lead to the ton. The property is under lease to Maxwell & Parsons, Reno men, who are delighted over their strike.

Since April the mines of Creede have been shipping over 8,000 tons per month of crude ore and concentrates. Geologists of the United States geological survey are preparing to make a complete examination of the district.

Following the increased shipments from Idaho Springs for the first seven months of the year 1904, a gain of about 70 per cent, comes August with a still better record. The shipments during August, 1903, were 117 cars; for August, 1904, 203 cars, an increase of 74 per cent. The receipts of all classes of freight during August, 1903, were 214 cars, and for August, 1904, 296 cars, an increase of 39 per cent. Much of this increased activity is owing to the success being attained by the various mills now in operation.

One of the most interesting of the numerous annual reports of the operations of corporate mining companies is that of the Consolidated Mercur Gold Mines Company of Mercur, Utah, issued August 1, says the Mining and Scientific Press. The report appears in the usual form, giving a financial statement of operations at that property. It shows that the gross value of ore treated was $3 89 per ton, and that the recovery average was $2 86, leaving an average value in the tailings of $1 03. The amount of ore treated was 226,701 tons, which is stated to be the smallest amount ever produced and treated in one year since the organization of the company.

REVERSAL OF FORM IN THE STOCK MARKET

Prices Made a Sharp Recovery and Trading Was on an Extensive Scale.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Herald this (Thursday) morning says:

There was a complete reversal of form in the stock market yesterday. Prices made a sharp recovery, many of them regaining in the course of the session practically all of the losses of the two preceding days. The trading was conducted upon an extensive scale, but presented little feature of novelty and no change in character.

Concentrated buying in a rather limited group of issues made up the bulk of the dealings, and these were largely taken by professional houses. The bear element, which had shown signs of aggression on the two preceding days, were induced to cover, and then repurchases were an important factor in the advance, which continued until the close of the market.

The ostensible reason for the advance in securities yesterday was the better weather news. The dire forebodings of killing frost, so freely circulated on preceding days, failed to materialize, and with the decline in wheat stocks were moved up.

The conspicuous features of the trading, however, Pennsylvania Railroad, United States Steel preferred and Erie common, were not properties directly influenced by the recent reports of crop injury, and it was difficult to explain their advances on the score of the better crop reports. Practically no news aside from that dealing with weather conditions developed during the day. The rumor mills were industriously at work, however, and supplied any deficiency in that direction.

ANOTHER BIG GATHERING AT M'CREERY'S STORE

Spectators Became Buyers and the Stock in Some Departments Was Exhausted Before Noon.

Another great crowd filled the store of McCreery & Co. yesterday upon the formal opening of the big establishment to the public. The immense throngs which crowded the building on the night before were exceeded by thousands yesterday. The managers and salesmen had looked for a crowd of sightseers, but they soon discovered that Pittsburghers were going to cause their amazement again. Before noon the stock in some departments was exhausted, and it was a weary throng of salespeople that left the store last night. Disagreeable weather did not interfere with the attendance, the great majority of the invited guests being on hand.

"No greater compliment could be paid the firm than is witnessed in the cordial greeting we have received from the people of Pittsburgh," said the general manager of the Pittsburgh store. "We cannot express to them, in words, just how we appreciate their warm words of praise for our efforts. McCreery & Co. endeavored to give Pittsburgh one of the finest stores in the world, and the good people here have proved themselves worthy of the best which any merchant can do toward providing for their comfort, convenience and desires."

Baker's Dozen Were on the Carpet.

There were 13 policemen before the police trial board yesterday for various violations of rules. Two were recommended for dismissal and 11 were ordered to pay small fines. Howard Craig of the Forty-third street police station was recommended for dismissal on a charge of being intoxicated while on duty, and Joseph Kelly of the Central station was disposed of in the same manner for being absent from duty without leave. Robert Smothers, colored, former janitor at Central station, who was dismissed for conduct unbecoming an officer three months ago, was reinstated and will be given his old position.

Excursion to Cumberland Sunday Sept., 18th.

$2.00 round trip. Special train leaves Baltimore & Ohio Station, Pittsburgh, 7:00 a. m.

C. P. A. Permits More Coach Excursions to World's Fair

As a result of action taken by the Central Passenger association at its first fall meeting, held in Chicago yesterday, it is stated the Pennsylvania lines will run coach excursions at the present rates—$12 from Pittsburgh—from Pittsburgh and points west of here to the St. Louis world's fair every day for five days in each week—Sundays to Thursdays, inclusive, beginning next Sunday, September 18. This determination on the part of the Pennsylvania lines is likely to cause some surprise, as the Pennsylvania lines were averse to taking advantage of the Central Passenger association's former rule granting each road the privilege to run two coach excursions a week. It is evident that the Pennsylvania lines are determined to take the lead, for no sooner had the Central Passenger association granted five excursions a week than the Pennsylvania made the announcement that it would take advantage of the rule. It is certain that the other roads will follow.

Report of Locomotive Company.

The annual report of the American Locomotive Company was a fine one for the fiscal year ending June 30. The surplus earnings, after all charges and preferred dividends had been paid, amounted to $3,675,539, and after setting aside $1,000,000 for extraordinary improvements, there was still left $2,775,539 payable on the common stock.

To Change Division Points.

The Bessemer & Lake Erie will soon issue an order making Kremis a turning point for a large number of freight crews making the runs between Kremis and Albion, in both directions, and Kremis and North Bessemer. The men are complaining of the long hours, 20 to 25, in making a continuous run between Albion and North Bessemer.

New Stoker Invented.

A new patent stoker has been built and will be attached to a large locomotive. It is different from those previously experimented with and is operated by a small upright engine which is about three feet in height and stands next to the boiler head. Below is a chute 12 inches square, which runs into the firebox opening, through which coal is poured.

Railroad Notes.

Marcus Unger has entered suit against the Baltimore & Ohio for $2,500 damages for refusing to accept mileage in payment of a fare.

General Superintendent Ralph Peters was in the city yesterday conferring with local officials.

E. E. Scott, secretary to General Passenger Agent Samuel Moody of the Pennsylvania lines, has gone to Cleveland as chief clerk to District Passenger Agent Weedon.

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad will meet September 28. The meeting of the directors of the Pennsylvania lines has been postponed on account of the absence of several of the officials.

THE MONEY MARKET.

The local money market is steady at 5@6 per cent on call and time loans. Clearing house comparisons:

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Money was wanted in the market today in connection with the payment of a $7,250,000 installment of the Transvaal loan. Discounts were easier on the announcement that $2,500,000 in gold will be sent from India at the end of the week. Business on the stock exchange was practically inert. Consols were fairly steady and home rails were fractionally better on easy contangos. Americans opened irregular, hardened slightly to above parity, became neglected, improved during the last hour and closed firm. Grand Trunk relapsed, as contangos were stiff. Imperial Japanese government 5s of 1904 were quoted at 95¾. Consols for money, 88 17-16. Consols for account, 88½. Money, 1½@1¾ per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 2⅜@2 7-16 per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for three months' bills is 2 7-16@2½ per cent. Bullion amounting to £75,000 was taken into the Bank of England and the sum of £60,000 was withdrawn today.

PARIS, Sept. 14.—Trading on the bourse today opened irregular and stocks were heavy. They improved later and at the close prices were firm. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 93.45 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 509.00. The private rate of discount was 1¼@1⅜ per cent. Three per cent rentes, 98f 92½c for the account. Exchange on London, 25f 23c for checks.

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—Prices on the boerse today were irregular. Exchange on London, 20 marks 41¾ pfgs for checks. Discount rates—Short bills, 2 per cent; three months' bills, 3⅛ per cent.

Banks and the Treasury.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the San Francisco and Seattle assay offices, today's official records show that the subtreasury paid out yesterday $9,425. Of this amount $6,673 had been deposited at San Francisco and $2,752 at Seattle. Total thus paid since Friday, $350,734, against $230,058 for the same period a week ago. Total payment by government to New York banks for the day, $3,614,000. Payment by banks to government, $4,532,000. Balance on the day's transactions, $918,000 paid by banks to government. Total net payment by banks to government since Friday, $4,605,000, against $2,748,000 similarly paid for the corresponding period a week ago and $2,930,000 paid by banks to government a year ago.

Condition of the Treasury.

WAITING MARKET IN STEEL TRADE

Inquiries Show That Buyers Are Testing the Newly Established Official Prices.

BILLET MEETING HERE TODAY

A market with many inquiries but few actual transactions of importance is the situation in the iron and steel trade. The newly fixed prices have not as yet been tested by buyers sufficiently to give great confidence in their stability. Furthermore, the official billet and bar prices are not yet established. The meeting of the association to settle these has been called for today in this city.

There have been many inquiries for iron within the past week. The number of actual orders is small but that there is considerable demand in sight is certain. Prices remain about the same.

The Steel Corporation furnaces are busy in nearly all cases, and several more are being prepared for resumption. The corporation is having considerable difficulty in securing a coke supply. Despite the starting of about 10,000 of its Connellsville ovens which had been cold for several months, the shortage is still in evidence and purchases are being made from other coke producers. The forecasted trouble from a lack of labor is already being felt in the coke region. The depression in the coke business a year ago caused an unusually large emigration of the foreigners from the United States back to their native countries. It is said that Italy has been made prosperous by the return of thousands of her sons with the savings from their work in the United States.

There have been repeated rumors of the Harriman rail interests placing an order for 95,000 tons of steel rails with the Steel Corporation. No official confirmation has been secured. It is understood that rails ordered now for next year will be delivered under the same guarantee of price that was used this year.

Current Quotations.

Below are given current quotations on various lines of iron and steel:

Bessemer pig iron—A ton, $12, valley furnaces.

The Hardware Market.

Orders for hardware show a very much better condition of business than for some time past. Dealers, apparently, are awakening to the fact that they are in need of goods and must have them in order to do business. Salesmen on the road and dealers generally are sending in a good business, indicating that stocks are low and that wants will be considerable as the season advances. Builders' hardware, housefurnishing goods, tools and bicycle goods seem to have a full share of the demand.

Orders for nails and wire continue to be placed with very fair specifications, the trade evidently appreciating that prices are very low on this particular line, and keeping their stocks in good shape to do business and in good shape to meet a possible advance in prices. A good business continues in window glass, the demand for sizes being almost in excess of the ability of manufacturers and jobbers to supply, and with the prospects that there will be very little glass made for some time, the demand is likely to be very much increased in the near future for such sizes as are now in stock. Desirable stocks are held at firm prices, and the probabilities are prices will be a little higher. Prices in general lines are very firm, no changes being noted recently. The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations:

Columbia pocket knives, discount 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 40 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $6 50 per doz.; Great Western files, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base No. 26, $2 35 per 100 lbs.; galvanized sheet iron, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sash weights, per ton, $27; window glass, L. C. L., 90 and 15 per cent from list October 1, 1903, on first three brackets; all brackets above, 90 and 5 per cent; Albion sewing machines, discount 25 per cent; blue and white enameled ware, 60 and 10 per cent; Albion gas stoves, 40 per cent; Albion lanterns, 40 per cent; fire shovels and pokers, 40 and 10 per cent.

NO RUSH OF BUYERS BECAUSE OF REDUCTION

From All Accounts, However, the Current Tonnage in the Steel Trade Is Good.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Iron Age will tomorrow say:

The all-absorbing question whether the recent open reduction in the prices of finished materials has stimulated serious buying cannot be answered definitely as yet. With due reserve, the statement may be made that thus far the indications are not particularly favorable. There has certainly not been any rush of buying.

From all accounts current tonnage in the steel trade is good. A clear indication of this is furnished by the fact that the independent mills are taking their purchases of raw material right along, with few insignificant exceptions, and that the United States Steel Corporation has in blast close upon 70 per cent of its furnace capacity, including a number of new stacks. During the whole of the year the policy of the corporation has been to adjust the pig iron production very closely to the steel requirements so that the pig iron output is a very accurate measure of the deliveries of material marketed.

Our recent blast furnace returns reflect the fact that foundry industries, too, are consuming at an increased rate. Then the report of the Bessemer Furnace association shows a reduction of idle capacity during August of 13 per cent.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at an advance of 5 points on European buying and better French cables, while there was also talk of unfavorable crop conditions and predictions for a decreased movement. Most of the buying seemed to be for European account, but there was also a demand through commission houses. The close was firm at a net advance of 15@20 points. Sales were reported of 70,750 bags, including September at 6.50@6.60c; October at 6.65@6.75c; December at 6.75@6.90c; January at 6.85@6.95c; March at 7.05@7.20c; May at 7.25@7.40c; July at 7.45@7.55c. Spot Rio steady; No. 7 invoice, 8⅝c; mild weak. Sugar—Raw steady; fair refining, 3⅝c; centrifugal, 96 test, 4 5-16c; molasses sugar, 3⅜c; refined quiet.

The Cotton Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Cotton futures closed steady: September, 10.59c; October, 10.46c; November, 10.47c; December, 10.50c; January, 10.52c; February, 10.56c; March, 10.61c; April, 10.62c; May, 10.65c; spot closed steady, 10 points advance; middling uplands, 11c; middling gulfs, 11.25c; sales, 17 bales.

FLOUR STILL RISING; PEACHES REMAIN FIRM

Bananas Are in Big Supply. Celery Is Not Wanted. Oats Advance.

Flour is still very firm. Millers made an advance of 15 cents again yesterday, but local jobbers did not follow. There is active demand and plenty of excitement is expected in the market during the next few weeks. Frost damage is to be another factor in the wheat market before long aside from the effect of losses due to rust. Fruit jars are in active demand. Sugar is still firm and coffee is holding its own.

Trading was quiet in produce. Bananas are offering in big quantities, arrivals having been about 20 cars again yesterday. There are about 40 cars of cantaloupes in the yards, but prices are holding steady, and are likely to continue so until the end of the week. Peaches showed a much firmer feeling yesterday and prices advanced on bushel basket lots. A good many Ohio peaches came in yesterday. California grapes arrived in good quantity yesterday for the first in three weeks. Potatoes are steady; onions are still tending downward. Celery is not wanted very much by jobbers and growers have been notified to discontinue shipments. The market here is overstocked. There is fair demand for elderberries. Green corn is in very scant supply and is being handled almost entirely by hucksters.

Butter is steady and eggs are still active and firm. Cheese is holding its own. Poultry is showing about the same as the first of the week. Oats and timothy hay are quoted higher. Although the hay and grain markets of the west are booming considerably there was not very much excitement on 'change here yesterday. Hay receipts are being cleaned up pretty well, and it will not be long before the stock will be in good demand again.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania, 24 cars hay, 5 cars feed, 2 cars rye, 2 cars corn, 4 cars oats, 2 cars corn and oats; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 2 cars hay, 2 cars rye, 1 car oats, 1 car corn, 1 car straw; Baltimore & Ohio, 2 cars oats, 5 cars hay, 1 car corn and oats.

WHEAT PRICES DROP ON LIBERAL SELLING

Market Declines Nearly Two Cents—Corn and Oats Down. Provisions Advance.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Lower prices in foreign grain markets caused liberal liquidation of wheat here today, resulting in declines of nearly 2 cents. Corn also was weak, the December option closing with a loss of ⅜@½c. Oats are down ¼c. Provisions are up 2½@7½c.

At the opening the wheat market experienced considerable weakness, initial quotations on December being off ½@1c at $1 14⅝@1 15¼. May was down ¼@⅝c to ⅞@1c at $1 17@1 17⅝. The principal factor in causing the break in values was the indifference of European grain markets to the sensational advance here yesterday, Liverpool reporting an opening decline of ⅛@⅜d in the price of wheat futures. From the start the market was subjected to heavy realizing sales. A report that a prominent bull operator was selling freely induced considerable profit-taking by smaller interests. The weakness of the grain markets at Minneapolis tended to bring out increased offerings. Before the end of the first half hour prices had dropped to a point almost 2 cents below last night's closing quotations, December declining to $1 14. May sold off to $1 16⅛. On a sudden spurt in corn prices, there was renewed purchasing of wheat. The result was a sharp bulge, December wheat advancing to $1 16⅛ and May to $1 18⅛. Small primary receipts and an active cash demand aided in the upturn. During the last half hour the market weakened rapidly under heavy realizing sales. The close was at the lowest point of the day, with December at $1 14. Final quotations on May were at $1 16, a net loss of 1⅞@2c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 55,200 bushels. The world's visible supply, according to Bradstreets, showed an increase of 2,869,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 899,100 bushels, compared with $1,176,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 469 cars, against 421 cars last week and 769 cars a year ago.

Weakness prevailed in the corn market early in the session, owing to the failure to materialize during the night of the predicted frosts, rains over the greater portion of the corn belt having protected the crop from damage in that direction. The initial decline in wheat also had a depressing influence in the corn pit. Later in the day, the market suddenly turned strong, the bull factor being a Minneapolis crop expert's estimate on the total yield. According to this authority the government figures should be discounted by 300,000,000 bushels. The market again weakened late in the session under liberal liquidation, the selling being a result of private advices claiming little damage by frost to the crop. Another bear factor was the heavy primary receipts. The close was near the low point. December opened ⅛@⅜c lower, at 52⅞@53¼c, sold between 52⅝c and 54⅛c, and closed at 53@53⅛c. Local receipts were 550 cars, with 36 of contract grade.

Oats were largely governed by the course of other grains. Trading was light as a result of small offerings. December opened ⅛c lower at 33⅛c, sold between 32⅞c and 33⅜c, and closed at 33⅛c. Local receipts were 121 cars.

Small receipts of hogs and higher prices at the yards imparted a firm undertone to the provision market. Trading was light and confined mostly to pit traders. A feature of trading was the selling out of the October products. At the close January pork was up 7½c at $12 72½. Lard and ribs were each up 2½@5c at $7 17½@7 20 and $6 67½ respectively.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow—Wheat, 58 cars; corn, 436 cars; oats, 100 cars; hogs, 22,000 head.

Only the Smallest Pumpers Are Being Discovered Now

Developments in the lower southwest fields yesterday failed to reveal anything better than light wells. On the east side of the Folsom district, Harrison county, the Delmar Oil Company drilled No. 5 on the Floyd Lyons farm through the Gordon and the hole filled up 150 feet. In the same district the South Penn drilled its second test on the J. W. Davis farm 32 feet below the Gordon and found nothing. The second test on the F. V. Mason farm, drilled into the 50-foot, developed a strong gas pressure. It will go deeper.

In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the South Penn company shot its test on the William Barker farm and it filled up 1,500 feet. The same company's second test on the Alfred Batson farm went 25 feet into the Big Injun and developed no oil or gas. It still has a chance. In the Pine Grove district the South Penn company completed its No. 7 on the John Ingham farm as a gasser in the Gordon, and its second test on the L. J. Higgenbotham farm is a five-barrel pumper. No. 11 on the Jesse Shuman farm is a small gasser.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the Star Oil and Gas Company drilled its test on the Randolph-Davis farm and has a show for a 25-barrel pumper. The South Penn has shot its No. 4 on the W. L. Steele farm and will not have better than a 10-barrel pumper.

In the Fish creek district, Marshall county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled on the Leidick farm 25 feet into the Gordon and has a fair well. The well produced 55 barrels the first 14 hours.

In the Yellow creek district, Calhoun county, the Eastern Oil Company is trying to drill its No. 3 on the S. L. Klipstein farm from the Keener sand to the Berea grit. The well showed about 25 barrels a day from the Keener.

The Guaranty Oil Company drilled its No. 4 on the P. S. Cox farm through the Berea grit and has a 25-barrel pumper. The Rush Run Oil Company completed its tst on the R. P. Wilson mill lot and has a 15-barrel pumper in the Maxon sand.

In the Wolf creek district, Morgan county, the Hastings Oil Company and the South Petroleum Company have completed their No. 15 on the G. E. Morris farm and have a producer that will start at 100 barrels a day. Cisler, Ranger & Co. have drilled in their second test on the Sadie Speers farm and have a show for a five-barrel pumper. Poster & Co., on the Joseph Zumbro farm, have a show for a light pumper in the shallow sand.

In the Chester Hill district H. E. Koester & Co. completed No. 11 on the Martha Scott heirs' farm and will have a two-barrel pumper. The Knickerbocker Oil Producing Company completed its No. 10 on the T. J. Edgerton farm and has a very light pumper. In the Marietta district, Washington county, Beasley & Timblin completed a test on the John Isner farm for a five-barrel pumper.

THE THREE RIVERS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, Sept. 14.—The stage of the river at 6 p. m. marked 4.8 feet and stationary. Weather partly clear and cloudy; cooler. Rain during early morning. Today's packet departures were: Big Kanawha, Portsmouth; Courier, Maysville; Ben Hur, Madison, and Bonanza, Louisville. The flag on the public landing was at half-mast out of respect for Col. Thomas W. Paxton, manager of Coney Island and owner of the Island Queen, one of the best known excursion boats plying the waters of the middle west rivers. Col. Paxton died this morning after a lingering illness resulting from a series of carbuncles. No towboat movements here. Business dull.

LOUISVILLE—River stationary, with 3.3 feet in the canal, 13 inches on the falls and 4.8 feet below the locks. Clear and cooler.

HUNTINGTON—River 4 feet 1 inch and stationary. Catherine Davis up with empties. Columbia for Charleston. Light rain.

PARKERSBURG—River 2.4 feet and falling. Weather cloudy and cold. The Bedford left at 4 a. m. for Wheeling.

GALLIPOLIS—River 3 feet and falling. Weather clear and cool, but rained this afternoon.

STEUBENVILLE—River 2 feet 2 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy and cool. The Cricket will enter the Muskingum river trade.

GREENSBORO—River six feet and stationary. Weather cloudy and cooler. Columbia down Thursday and Woodward up.

OIL CITY—River five inches and falling. Weather cloudy and cool.

WARREN—River .3. Weather fair and cool.

MORGANTOWN—River five feet nine inches and stationary.

At 9 o'clock last night the marks on the gauge at the Davis island dam indicated a stage of 2.5 feet and the river was stationary.

WHARF GETS ATTENTION.

Street Cleaning Department Cleared It of All the Debris.

The city street cleaning department got to work yesterday on the Monongahela wharf. A force of men cleared away the debris along the top of the wharf and the hard shower in the afternoon helped their efforts considerably. Several wagonloads of rubbish were hauled away, but hucksters are to continue doing business at the same place.

The rain yesterday was not sufficient to make any change in the stage of water and navigation is still tied up. The Little Aid arrived yesterday from Wellsburg and returned with a tow of timber. The Columbia was in and out with good-sized trips. The Mayflower and Torrance ran down to Brunots Island on account of the matinee races. The wharf was crowded with people all afternoon, though many turned back just before the rain came. The Gen. Theodore Schwan is now lying at the mouth of the Cheat river and will start down today with a tow of stone flats.

Local River Notes.

The I. C. Woodward will be the Morgantown boat today.

Capt. Benjamin Wilson of the Pittsburgh & Morgantown packet office, is Col. Theodore Poe's latest rival. The captain predicts high water for September 25.

No. 3 lock in the Monongahela river will be closed 24 hours commencing at 7 o'clock this morning while repairs are being made there. The up-river packet boats will run as usual, however.

The Francis J. Torrance backed into a barge while making a trip to Brunots Island yesterday afternoon and smashed about six feet of her guard. The high wind prevented the boat from turning around and this accounted for the accident. The collision caused considerable excitement among the passengers, but the trip was delayed only a short time and no one was hurt.

ELECTION CALLED IN COMPANY G, EIGHTEENTH

Another election will be held in Company G, Eighteenth regiment, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. Charles M. Davis. An election held in Camp Col. M. S. Quay at Gettysburg in July has been disapproved by the regimental, brigade and division commanders and the governor, as being irregular. Daniel Van Vorhis, who was first sergeant of the company, was advanced to a first lieutenancy and William B. Copeland, Jr., was made captain. On account of the company having no regular commanding officer the camp pay of the men has not been disbursed. The election probably will be held next month.

One Fare for the Round Trip to Antietam Md., Account Dedication of Pennsylvania Monuments.

The Pennsylvania railroad will sell from all points in Pennsylvania special excursion tickets to Antietam, Md., on September 14 to 17 inclusive, good to return until September 23 inclusive. Rate from Pittsburgh, $8.40. Corresponding rates from other stations.

GUN SIGHT ORDER RUSHED.

Noted Allegheny Firm Gets Contract for Important War Material.

A rush order has been given by the United States government for several hundred long-range sights for heavy ordnance. The John A. Brashear Company, Limited, manufacturers of astronomical instruments in Allegheny, has received the contract for making the lenses and machines for optical adjustment. Warner & Swasey of Cleveland will furnish the other parts of the instruments.

It is presumed that the sights have been ordered for guns on battleships and the big armored cruisers. Dr. Brashear is still in Canada on his vacation and the superintendent of his factory could not state what necessitated the government to ask for a rush order.

"UNCLE JOE" GOES ON FIRING LINE

Speaker Cannon Will Make a Great Campaign Tour of the Country.

COMING TO PENNSYLVANIA

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 14.

Out on the firing line goes "Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives. Leaving Chicago tomorrow in a private car, he fires his first volley at South Bend, Ind., that evening. From then until election day "Uncle Joe" will be in the forefront of battle. From Nebraska to Connecticut, from Minnesota to Maryland, he will charge the enemy at vulnerable points, and in his own characteristic and picturesque language he will point out to the voters the way of truth and wisdom.

Speaker Cannon will make this tour, covering a period of six weeks, under the direction of the Republican congressional campaign committee. As manager, Chairman Babcock will send him into those congressional districts where the Republican members need his assistance or where there is hope of supplanting a Democratic member with a Republican. Mr. Cannon's tour will extend over Indiana, Illinois, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, thence back to Indiana and to his home district in Illinois. It is estimated that Speaker Cannon will cross the West Virginia line about October 15 and will spend three days there. The details of his itinerary have not been worked out to that point, however, nor has a final selection been made as to the cities to be visited. Two or three days will be spent in Maryland, the biggest meeting being held in Baltimore about October 23.

Will Attack Miers' Stronghold.

The speech at South Bend will be in the interest of Representative Abraham Lincoln Brick, who was elected two years ago with a plurality of less than 2,000 votes out of the 48,000 ballots cast. Friday and Saturday will be spent in speechmaking at Terre Haute, Vincennes and Booneville. The latter place is in Mr. Hemenway's district, while the two others are in close districts. At Terre Haute Mr. Cannon will be in Representative Elias S. Holliday's district, which was Republican two years ago by a little more than 2,000 votes. At Vincennes Speaker Cannon will attack the stronghold of Representative Robert W. Miers, the Democrat who two years ago won from John C. Chaney by the narrow margin of 730 votes.

Next Monday Mr. Cannon will reach into Illinois, speaking that evening at Fairfield, Wayne county. This is in the Twenty-fourth congressional district, carried two years ago by Representative J. R. Williams, Democrat, by a plurality of only 152 votes. The Republicans see here a fine opportunity for success. So deep-rooted is this feeling that Mr. Cannon, although urgently pressed for time, will spend two days in the district, speaking Tuesday, the 20th, at Metropolis, in Massac county.

From the Twenty-fourth Illinois Mr. Cannon goes to the Twenty-fifth district, speaking Wednesday at Sparta, Randolph county. The Twenty-fifth district is represented by Representative George W. Smith, who has been in the house continuously since the Fifty-first congress. Thursday will find Mr. Cannon and his party at Belleville, St. Clair county, in the Twenty-second Illinois district, represented by Representative William A. Rodenburg, the well-known Republican leader of East St. Louis. Like his colleague, Mr. Smith, however, Mr. Rodenburg was successful at the last congressional election by a plurality of about 2,000 votes.

To Invade Bryan's State.

Leaving Illinois the night of Thursday, the speaker's party will penetrate into Nebraska, where William Jennings Bryan is making his struggle for the senate. The first meeting in Nebraska will be in Falls City, Richardson county, in the First congressional district. This district is represented by Mr. Burkett, who is also slated for the senate in case the Republicans are successful in controlling the state legislature. Three or four days will be spent in Nebraska, as there are many close districts.

The next state to be visited will be Iowa, where especial attention will be paid to the Second congressional district, now represented by Martin J. Wade, a Democrat. The Republicans believe they have a good chance to win this district from Mr. Wade. His plurality two years ago was only 1,158 votes. One of the big meetings will be at Burlington.

Two or three days will be spent in Minnesota, with meetings at St. Paul, Minneapolis and one or two other places yet to be determined upon. Then Speaker Cannon will speed to Wisconsin, where he will assist Representatives Babcock and Miner to withstand the assaults of the Democrats and the LaFollette Republicans.

Chicago will be reached in time for the big celebration of the anniversary of the Chicago fire by the Marquette club. The celebration will be held the evening of October 8.

After Chicago Mr. Cannon goes to Ohio to assist Representative Nevin in the Third district and Gen. Grosvenor in the Eleventh. From Ohio the party will come into West Virginia, thence into Maryland, and for one day in Pennsylvania, at York. Two or three days will be spent in the close districts of New Jersey, after which Mr. Cannon will go in turn to Connecticut and Rhode Island. This will bring the campaign down to about November 1. Mr. Cannon will then turn to the west again, going first to Fort Wayne and then to Indianapolis, speaking for Representative Jesse Overstreet in the latter city. From Indiana the speaker goes to his home in Illinois to close the campaign and to vote.

L. W. STRAYER.

THEATER OFFERINGS.

What is said to be the most perfect revival of old-time black face minstrelsy that the stage has ever known will be brought to the Nixon theater next week by Lew Dockstader. In scenic beauty and novelty, in vocal perfection and in the reintroduction of the very best features of old-time minstrelsy, the Dockstader minstrels are said to have eclipsed anything of its kind ever seen. Mr. Dockstader himself is equipped with a new crop of fun.

Leo Ditrichstein, the author of "Vivian's Papas" and "All on Account of Eliza," scored his greatest hit in "Are You a Mason?" which the Avenue theater stock company will produce next week, with Jane Kennark and William Courtenay in the leading roles. This play is familiar to Pittsburgh theatergoers through its very successful engagement here a year ago at the Alvin. The best proof of its popularity is the fact that it is now being revived at the Garrick, New York, where it originally enjoyed a run of one entire season.

Jessie Millward, the celebrated English actress, who was Henry Irving's leading lady for several seasons, will be the topliner in the bill of attractions at the Grand next week. With the aid of Francis Carlyle, the talented and handsome leading man, she will present "The Queen's Messenger." George Evans, the "Honey Boy," will occupy a prominent place on the bill, as will Hassan Ben Ali's troupe of 18 Arabs.

A company of colored entertainers, known as the "Policy Players," will appear at the Empire theater next week in a lively performance of the musical comedy, "The Bogus Prince." There are many good vaudeville specialties introduced.

The Bijou will offer a Japanese war play next week in Theodore Kremer's "A Prisoner of War," which is said to be filled with scenes and incidents of the great struggle going on in the east. The cast is headed by Edwin Brandt.

Not for many seasons has a musical creation received such universal indorsement from the critics as "Buster Brown," which comes to the Duquesne next week. It is conceded by the most exacting critics to be the best musical show presented for some time, and many of its enthusiastic judges say that it is the "best yet."

Those who like a bright burlesque show should not miss the Academy next week when the "High Rollers" visit the city for the only time this season. The company this year is said to be the best that the manager has ever sent upon the road.

AIRING CHARGES AGAINST JAHN

Perjury Case Tried in Which Anti-Saloon League Detective Is Defendant.

TO TEST INSPECTOR'S POWERS

The equity case of J. J. Miller against J. Henry Jahn and others, which seeks to set aside several deeds and straighten matters involving property, was taken up before Judge Shafer yesterday. The plaintiff charges Jahn with fraud and claims he was not a party to any transfer of property.

Jahn testified the property was deeded according to an agreement and that he was holding it in trust for Muller and C. F. Minehart, and that the property had always been subject to their control. The case had not been concluded when court adjourned.

Detective W. J. Manning of the Anti-Saloon league was placed on trial in criminal court yesterday before Judge McClung on a charge of perjury, made by Christ Knoll, a saloonkeeper of McKeesport. When court adjourned the case had been finished excepting the charge to the jury. Casper Doell, a bartender for the prosecutor, and a number of policemen testified that there had never been a fight in the saloon, as the detectives said. The defendant said he and Detective Berry had visited the place on different occasions and that what he testified to was true. The two detectives were the only witnesses for the defense.

In criminal court yesterday Samuel Birch pleaded guilty to two charges of larceny and in each was sent to the workhouse for one year, the sentences to run concurrent. The charges were made by Charles Kiesen and E. M. Mylin, farmers of Penn township, who alleged that Birch entered their barns last May and at each one stole a cow, which he sold.

G. D. Kelly was sent to the workhouse for one year and eight months, having been convicted of a charge of felonious assault and battery on James Herron last May.

Daniel Flynn, charged by John L. Marks of Rankin with entering his home, was sent to the workhouse for a year. He was convicted of receiving stolen goods.

Leslie Taylor was sent to the workhouse for six months. He was convicted of shooting at John Kolodosky at East Pittsburgh and was recommended to the mercy of the court.

In the equity suit of John F. Ambrose and others against Jacob J. Murphy, meat and milk inspector of McKeesport, the defendant has filed answer in what he avers he believes he is vested with power to regulate the computing devices on scales. He says the plaintiffs use the Dayton money weight, spring balance, barrel-shaped computing scale. This scale, he says, while it will weigh correctly, does not compute correctly in all cases and he gives as an instance of this the statement that it will show odd ounces in weight and change cents even, such as 13 ounces weight and computed the value to be 14 cents instead of 13 cents.

A decree has been made in the divorce suit of Theresa Luty against John Luty on the grounds of desertion.

Kirk Q. Bigham, in a separate action, and in a joint action with Thomas B. Hutchinson, entered suits against the Pittsburgh Construction Company. In each suit $5,000 damages is asked, it being alleged that the construction company in constructing the West Side Belt railroad deposited earth, rock and waste material on the plaintiff's property in the Thirty-fifth ward.

Judge John M. Kennedy has filed opinions in the cases of W. D. Johnston against Thomas A. Watkins and T. L. Shallenberger against A. D. V. Watterson, making absolute rules for judgment for want of sufficient affidavit of defense. In both cases the actions are on notes.

In the former case Watkins set up the defense that the plaintiff was not the present owner of the note, therefore was not the proper person to bring the suit. The court decided that the defendant can save himself by paying the amount of the judgment into court to be distributed to the proper party.

In the other case a note of $500 given in a real estate deal was involved.

In the United States district court yesterday five petitions in bankruptcy were filed, two of them being involuntary. One of these latter petitions was presented against the Wick China Company of Wickboro, Armstrong county, and claims to the amount of $18,035 72 are presented. The petitioners are John Wick, Jr., president of the company; Frank M. Fries and James McCullough, Jr., all of Kittanning. The largest claim presented is that of John Wick, Jr., who claims $9,944 22 for services rendered the company as its president. The remainder of the claims are for merchandise furnished.

The other involuntary petition was presented by the Central Brass and Iron Bedstead Company of Cleveland and the Corry Upholstering Company and the Corry Couch Company of Corry, Pa., against Clyde R. and Katherine A. Meridith, trading as the Meridith Company of Monongahela, Pa. Claims to the amount of $806 68 are filed.

The voluntary petitions filed are as follows: Frank H. Davis, agent, of Sheraden, liabilities $808 59, assets $20; Jay Woodring, real estate dealer, Johnstown, liabilities $1,724 27, assets $5,350; Lester C. Adams and George W. Adams of Erie, Pa., trading as Adams Bros., liabilities of the firm $3,096 26, with no assets; Lester C. Adams, individually, liabilities $9,430 83, assets $8,694; George W. Adams, individually, liabilities $1,406 54, assets $1,123.

In the bankruptcy case of James F. McMahon, a petition was presented asking the court to direct the payment of $90 33 to the bankrupt. It is said he compromised with his creditors and that after a settlement this amount was left over. The court took the papers. In the bankruptcy case of Kolbacker & Siegel of Uniontown, the court made an order directing the sale of the firm, for which $7,400 has been bid at a public sale. The appraised value is $8,219.

K. J. Hendricks has began equity proceedings against George W. Miler and T. C. McPherson, trading as the Keystone Wire Matting Company, to enforce a specific performance of an alleged agreement. The plaintiff alleges they entered into an agreement by which the defendants were to sell him their entire output, which he was to market. He alleges they have violated this.

Applications for charters have been made by the Mother of Perpetual Help Polish Roman Catholic Beneficial society of Pittsburgh, represented by Attorney J. M. Friedman, and the Kinsmans Mystic Senate of Pittsburgh. Michael Pokalski and others are subscribers to the first application and J. C. Van Orsdell and others of the other.

Natale Napaleone has entered an equity suit against Luis Napaleone to obtain an accounting in a partnership existing between them in a grocery at Moon Run.

The following executions were issued yesterday: I. Glatch vs. James McCune, Jr., $495 71; the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company vs. J. & H. Benz, $1,236 96; Izidor Klein vs. Stephen J. Kertesz, $1,500; William Zoeller vs. Richard B. Scandrett, with notice to Christ Detzel, terre tenant, $10,485 45; R. A. Lee vs. M. S. Switz, $179 02; Hope Planing Mill Company vs. Joseph L. Pyle, $1,171 66.

Grand Jury Returns.

The grand jury returned the following true bills yesterday: Felonious assault and battery, Giovanni Gravi; embezzlement, Harry Jolly, Chester S. Mills (2), Steve Sheehan; larceny from the person, John Szymansky; fraudulently making a written statement, W. L. Winters, William Williams; larceny by bailee, J. Cohen, John Teshkus, et al.; selling liquor illegally, Bessie Goodwin, David Levine; larceny, Robert Barber, William F. Walsh (4), Angelo Zarelly; aggravated assault and battery, Louis Benchow; assault and battery, Harry Goldstein, Fred Gunther, Maggie Morgan, et al., Mike Morris, Sam Riccolo, Ida B. Shoper, Francis Sheftage, Tillie Sheftage, John E. Walker; misdemeanor, William Espy, Joseph Price, Joseph Rabble, David Underwood, John E. Walker, Leonard Weidner; pointing firearms, Peter Bentz, James Daley, William F. Walsh.

On the Trail of the Trading Stamp.

West End business men are forming a new organization which will be a branch of the Retail Merchants' Association of Pittsburgh. A committee on by-laws will report at a meeting to be held in the West End auditorium next Wednesday. The purpose of the movement is to abandon the use of trading stamps, to regulate the closing of stores on holidays and to promote the business interests of the district in every way. The association will be composed of retailers from Sheraden, Elliott, Crafton and Ingram. George F. Cronmiller is acting president and William Horsefall acting secretary.

Ayer's

You have doubtless heard a great deal about Ayer's Sarsaparilla—how it makes the blood pure and rich, tones up the nervous system, clears the skin, reddens the cheeks, and puts flesh on the bones. Remember, "Ayer's" is the kind you want—the kind the doctors prescribe. $1.00. All druggists.

Ayer's Pills are a great aid to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. These pills are liver pills, safe for the parents, and just as safe for the children. Purely vegetable.

POLITICIANS AT A BIG OX ROAST

Baldwin Township Invaded Yesterday by Men Hungry Both for Meat and Votes.

NOTED MEN TO SPEAK HERE

Baldwin township saw lots of candidates for office yesterday. They gathered from all points of the Allegheny county compass to do honor to the ox roast given by the Roosevelt Republican club in Southern park and, incidentally, by making themselves agreeable, to acquire votes for themselves at the coming election and at the primaries next June. More candidates would have been present had not the rain led them to believe that the outing would be spoiled for many. A large crowd was present, however, most of the young folks of Baldwin township and Carrick having made it a point to attend.

Hard work to make the affair a success was done by the committee of arrangements, Albert McGibney, chairman; William Baumgart, vice chairman; S. Zimmerman, secretary, and H. T. Galey, J. G. Wellinger, P. D. Cowan, William Wilds, Sr., James Fisher and Peter Threnhauser.

Among those present were Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, candidate for congress from the Thirty-second district; Prothonotary J. B. Hamilton, Postmaster John Bercher of Mt. Oliver, Postmaster Joseph Werner of Carrick, Andrew S. Miller, candidate for the Republican nomination for county register at next June's primaries; Capt. John A. Reed, Capt. George Mercer, Frank J. Klumpp, Charles Fetterman, C. J. Ruhlandt and many others.

A whole steer had been roasted and hundreds partook of the meat and filled up with roasting ears, peas, tomatoes, potatoes and coffee, the elaborate dinner being itself worth the price of admission. After dinner there were some sporting events, such as races for business men, single men, married women, unmarried women and boys. There was a potato race and a chase after a greased pig, which became the prize of the man who caught it. Despite the rain early in the afternoon and the cold weather which followed, the ox roast was a success, both from a financial as well as social point of view.

The secretary of the Republican county committee, Charles A. Muehlbronner, has returned from a conference with Senator Boies Penrose, Republican state chairman. They fixed the dates for four big Republican mass meetings, to be held during the campaign. The first will be held on September 30 in Old City hall, and the chief speakers will be Congressman W. P. Hepburn of Iowa, Thomas J. Stewart, adjutant general of Pennsylvania, and Attorney General J. Hampton Carson. On October 8 a meeting will be held in Carnegie Library hall, Allegheny, and Senator J. B. Foraker of Ohio will probably speak, and also either Senator P. C. Knox or Congressman John Dalzell. On October 22 a meeting will be held in the Kenwood Lawn pavilion, at which ex-Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith and either Congressman Dalzell or Senator Knox will speak. The last big meeting of the campaign will be held on November 5, either in Old City hall or in the music hall of the Exposition society's buildings.

E. P. Kearns, a Democrat and formerly United States collector of revenue for the Pittsburgh district, said yesterday that he might vote for Roosevelt. His three sons had voted for McKinley and Roosevelt, he said.

AGENT WORKED WHILE BUSINESS MEN TALKED

While the Homestead Business Men's association was in session yesterday discussing plans to have the distribution of trading stamps in the borough discontinued, a new trading stamp agent appeared in the town and secured contracts with 12 firms to handle his stamps. H. J. Forbes, R. J. Garver and R. T. Horner were appointed a committee to submit the association's plan to merchants.

HOMESTEAD ENJOYING A BUSINESS REVIVAL

Business conditions are rapidly improving in Homestead, following the revival last month in working conditions at the Homestead steel works. During the past week real estate sales aggregating $25,000 were made and at present there is under construction about $150,000 worth of buildings. A new amusement building to cost $30,000, a Slavonic Catholic church to cost $30,000, an Odd Fellows hall to cost $20,000, the Homestead town hall to cost $20,000 and many new dwellings have been contracted for.

LIGHT AND DARK,

Day and night, sunshine and shadow are not more different from each other than a healthful from a sickly woman. The healthful woman carries light and sunshine with her wherever she goes.

The woman who suffers from ill-health casts a shadow on her own happiness and the happiness of others. She cannot help it. Those who suffer cannot smile and sing.

Ill-health in woman is generally traceable to disease of the delicate womanly organism. Many women have been restored to happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I feel it my duty to inform you that I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, of 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine for this or that complaint as my troubles became unbearable. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and then I did not take any more for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand of comfort, for I am a new woman once more."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DISHONEST BANK CLERKS SCORED

Bond Companies Are Declared to Have Lost Enormously Through Their Defalcations.

AMERICAN BANKERS MEET

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The convention of the American Bankers' association began at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel today. President F. G. Bigelow of Milwaukee delivered his annual address.

The report of Secretary James R. Branch showed that during the past year the association's detective agents have captured 75 professional bank criminals, and that 54 were convicted. Twenty-eight chapters of the Institute of Bank Clerks have been established during the year by the committe on education. During the year the trust company section grew from 453 to 566 members, and the savings bank section from 500 to 616. The total membership is now 7,563. The aggregate capital, surplus and deposits of members in the association amount to $11,290,686,637.

A resolution was adopted by the convention indorsing Senator Lodge's bill for the bettering of the consular service. Reports of the treasurer, the protective committee, uniform laws committee and bureau of education and the report of the committee on currency legislation were presented, all advocating "sound money" and "a flexible currency," with recommendations that the bankers' association through its officers and committees work for legislation along these lines.

An amendment to the association's constitution creating a board of five trustees for the management and administration of a fund to be known as the "American Bankers' Guaranty fund," from which members may be reimbursed from losses by dishonest employes, was lost.

During the discussion a delegate from Baltimore, who represented a bonding company, made a statement that last year the losses sustained by the bond companies of the United States were most disastrous, and that the cause was directly due to the defalcations of bank clerks.

A Beautiful Chiffonier

This mahogany chiffonier admirably represents the refinement and artistic quality that distinguish the furniture shown by this establishment. Notwithstanding the great variety of styles to be found here, each one is exclusive with this store and each is a work of art.

The chiffonier shown above is 3 ft. 6 in. wide and 23 in. deep, the proportions being at once commodious and symmetrical. The mirror, which is of heavy beveled plate, is 32 in. wide by 20 in. deep.

The above illustration is intended only to convey a suggestion of the character of the furniture for all parts of the house, which may be obtained here in endless variety. Of the beauty and distinctive merits of the various styles it is, of course, impossible to give any description.

Remember, too, that prices are lowest consistent with quality at

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS
AND — OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or officinal names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—"Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.
